HOW IS BUSINESS?

THE ATLANTIC PANTS CO.

Very dull so say two thirds of the Toledo merchants. Not so with us since we have announced the arrival of our new assortment of suiting, overcoating and trousering for this fall and winter—we are enjoying a good trade, and we are not at all surprised—considering that we cut and make to your measure a nice suit of cloths from all wool goods for $12.90. better grades at $15, $18 and $20. Our overcoatings are very pretty. Brown and black cheviots at $10, to order. Our Milton's, Kersey's, Beaver chinchilla, overcoating at $15, $18 and $20, to order, are exactly half what other tailors ask. It would also do your heart and purse good to see our trousering, a nice pair of all wool trousers to order for $3, better grades at $4, $5 and $6, if you wish?

WASHED TO SEA.

Terrible Storms Raging in the East.

Mountain Like Waves are Beating on the Shore

And Plowing Far Into the Land.

Many Lives Have Been Lost in the Storm.

Only the First Returns of Disaster are Beginning to Come in and Later News Will Tell of Much Destruction.

New York, Oct. 14.—The fatal storm which raged in this vicinity since Sunday has wrought immense damage along the Long Island coast.

At Rockaway waves nearly thirty feet high are lashing the beach, plowing far into the sand, and washing buildings and boats out to sea.

Many pleasure crafts have been missing since Sunday and it is feared they have been lost with all on board.

George White, Alfred Kane, Mark Thursby and Alden Little, of New York, hired two boats Sunday for a day's fishing. They have not been since seen, but one of the boats has been picked up and there is hardly a doubt but that all four men have been drowned.

At Holland's Station, on Rockaway beach, seven boats were let out on Sunday. They carried 16 men. None of them has since been seen and it is thought the storm carried them out to sea. As the water outside the inlet raged mountains high, so that a small boat could scarcely live a minute in it, the 16 men were probably drowned.

A two-masted schooner sailed by Jans Moore and having a crew of three men, put out from Canarsie Sunday afternoon. She was caught in the storm and the three sailors were swept off the deck while trying to make sail.

Moore clung to a mast and was saved, but only after drifting around for over 24 hours and then at the loss of Julius Quay, a life saver, who went out to the vessel in a breeches buoy and was drowned.

Moore was finally rescued. He is believed to be insane from his awful experience as he talks in an incoherent way and constantly begs to be taken back to the boat.

IN AID OF GOOD HEALTH.

The Streams of the State Must Not be Polluted.

An Important Decision Rendered by the Supreme Court of the State of Ohio.

Columbus, O., Oct. 14.—The supreme court has rendered an important decision in the case of the Ohio Oil company against the state, brought up on error to the circuit court of Putnam county, that will serve as a precedent.

The company was indicted and fined for polluting the Portage river with refuse from their refinery and appealed to the supreme court to test the law under which the corporation was prosecuted and escape the penalty.

The court affirmed the judgment, and thereby sustained the law, establishing the right to prevent the pollution of streams in Ohio.

BALKED BY THE COURT.

The Secret Ballot Law Will Stand.

The Supreme Court Refused to Hand Down a Decision on Judge Thompson's Motion.

Columbus, Oct. 14.—The supreme court balked the republican conspirators yesterday and the expected decision in the preliminary motion, intended as an opening wedge in the scheme for the destruction of the Australian ballot law, was not rendered.

This precludes the possibility of a hearing of the case on its merits prior to the November election, and the electors can continue with safety, familiarizing themselves with the secret ballot, so that no mistake will be made in properly marking the ticket.

Mr. Thompson's motion for leave to file a petition in mandamus compelling the attorney general to bring action to test the law is still on the court calendar in consequence of which the conspirators are uneasy and unhappy.

RIBBON FAILURE.

New York, Oct. 14.—Kronthel Bros., ribbon dealers, of 14 Church street, made an assignment yesterday, giving preferences for about $4,000.

TO ASSASSINATE SACASA.

A Corporal Attempts the Life of the President.

Carlos Perez Caught on the Roof of the Executive's Home—To be Court Martialed.

New York, Oct. 14.—A special cable dispatch to the Herald from Managua, Nicaragua, says an attempt was made early yesterday morning by a corporal of the palace guard, named Carlos Perez, to assassinate President Sacasa.

Perez was caught on top of the roof over the president's sleeping apartment. He had already made an opening in the roof.

Sacasa was awakened by the noise and called the guard, who placed Perez under arrest. He will be courtmartialed.

BOUND OVER.

"Sam'l o' Posen" May Now Have a Fair Trial Before the Superior Court.

San Francisco, Oct. 14.—Maurice B. Strellinger, or Curtis, the actor, charged with the murder of Police Officer Alexander Grant, was held to answer before the superior court by Police Judge Rex. Only three witnesses were examined. In conclusion Henry Fraust Gardner stated that he had worked for Strellinger and knew that the latter was in the habit of carrying a pistol.

HUSBAND A PARTISAN.

One Kansas Town Is Heartily Sick of Its Woman Mayor.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 14.—The town of Kiowa, Kas., is in a turmoil, the citizens being in open revolt against Mrs. Paxton, the mayor, on account of her warfare against whisky "joints."

She has been petitioned by the business men to resign, and her husband's name is said to be on the petition.

CARRIED HEAVY INSURANCES.

New York, Oct. 14.—Levi M. Bates, who was drowned midway between Rikers island and Bowery bay on Saturday, when he was out rowing with his younger son, George B. Bates, had insurances of considerably more than $100,000 upon his life and had applied for $80,000 of insurance within the last 11 weeks. When the big insurance companies opened their offices yesterday the officials looked up the policies they had issued and compared notes, they fancied that Mr. Bates must have had some premonition of his approaching death.

PETITION FOR DISSOLUTION.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 14.—A petition for a dissolution of Hardwick & Ware Manufacturing company was cited in the supreme court yesterday. The liabilities are about $150,000 and the assets considerably less. The company offered their creditors the basis of 40 cents on the dollar but the offer was refused.

WASHED AWAY THE WALL.

Cape May, N. J., Oct. 14.—Heavy notheast storm tides carried away the front brick wall of Postmaster General Wanamaker's Cape May cottage yard, and with it three feet of beach front. There is some loss of shore line at other places between jetties.

WILL CONTEST.

Paris, Oct. 14.—The daughters of the late Gen. Boulanger have retained counsel and will contest four clauses of their father's will.

JUDGE ALLEN DEAD.

New York, Oct. 14.—Judge Henry Wilder Allen, who was stricken with apoplexy Saturday has died.

FIRE AT DAYTON.

Dayton, O., Oct. 14.—The Dayton & Ironton railroad shops were burned yesterday. Loss, $20,000.

SA-GO-YE-WA-THA.

A Granite Monument in Honor of the Great Red Jacket

On the Spot Where He First Saw the Light of Day.

The Shores of Seneca Lake are To-day Lined With People to Witness the Unveiling.

Waterloo, N. Y., Oct. 14.—At two o'clock this afternoon at Canoga, six miles from here, on the shore of Seneca lake, on the spot where Red Jacket, Chief of the six nations of the Iroquois, was born, unveiled the granite monument to his memory erected by the Waterloo library and historical society.

A delegation of Indians from the Canadian survivors of the six nations arrived last evening. These include John Buck, a chief of the Onandagas and a number of Cayuga chiefs. Delegations from other tribes arrived this morning. Hon. W. C. Bryant, of Buffalo delivered the oration.

The design of the monument is most unique and is said to be after ideas suggested by General Eli Parker, the famous Indian member of General Grant's staff.

Red Jacket, in his speeches, frequently compared himself to a blasted hemlock tree. The monument represents the trunk of such a tree from which the limbs have been lopped off. It stands on a pedestad containing inscribed tablets and is surrounded by six huge boulders typifying the six nations.

On this spot Red Jacket was born in January, 1730, his real name being Sa-Go-Ye-Wa-Tha, meaning "He keeps them awake." His Red Jacket title came from his dress. His eminence as the successor of Chief Brant in the six nations, his services to the crown in the revolution, and to the United States in 1812, are all recorded in the early history of this region.

Red Jacket's remains lie in Forest Lawn cemetery, Buffalo, and within a few weeks a monument will be erected over his grave there.

BLAIR HAS RESIGNED.

The Ex-Senator Says He Declined Another Position.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Ex-Senator Blair has resigned his commission as minister to China. He says: "My resignation was accepted yesterday, and I am now a free American citizen without office, notwithstanding the malicious unkindness of some of my newspaper friends in suggesting my appointment to most of the offices now vacant. I am not going to receive any other appointment. The president offered to give me an office of equal dignity to that of the Chinese mission, but I told him that I did not want anything else."

A DOG LED THE WAY.

The Body of John Whalen Found.

He Had Been Murdered and His Mutilated Remains Buried by His Assassin.

Pittsfield, Mass., Oct. 14.—The body of John Whalen, who has been missing since Aug. 29, and for whose disappearance William Coy, with whom Whalen lived, was held responsible, and was arrested on suspicion of having murdered him, was found buried on the mountainside last night close by Coy's shanty.

The body was cut into pieces and an examination showed that the skull had been crushed and that a gash had been cut in the throat.

A dog was the means of finding the body. He belonged to one of the searchers who had been hunting in the woods for the body for some time past.

In a thick growth of young maples and beeches on the mountainside, sixty rods south of Coy's house, the dog began scratching the ground. This attracted attention and the searchers began to dig at the spot.

About two feet below the surface the remains were found. The body lay on its back and the severed legs were on top of the trunk. Whalen was known to be intimate with Mrs. Coy and this was the probable cause of the murder.

Coy is about 35 years old and from the time of Whalan's disappearance until his arrest drove a street car at Westfield.

A NEW BASE BALL WRINKLE.

A Proposition to Arrange the Season in Two Parts.

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—A proposition is being discussed in base ball circles to introduce into the league and American association games the double championship series which C. D. White, president of the Eastern association, introduced into that organization this season. By this arrangement the teams play till the middle of the season, and the team then in the lead is declared champion for the first half. At the conclusion of the first half the combatants begin the struggle anew, the tail-enders in the first half having just as good a start in the second half as the champions. The winners of the two series then play for the final championship.

This plan worked admirably in the Eastern association, and the question arises, why could it not be utilized by the National league? The championship contests of that body are sorely in need of something to enliven them.

THE POWDER EXPLODED.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 14.—Last night six laborers on a construction train at Enslie City went to sleep in a car where a red hot stove was close to two kegs of powder. The powder ignited and exploded, blowing the car to fragments, killing Sam Williams, John Jones, Orange Plumb and Frank Miller; and fatally injuring Sandy Norway and Henry Bradford.

WILL CARRY EXHIBITS FREE.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Within certain limits as to room the Atlantic transport line of freight steamers has made a proposition to the management to carry free of freight charges between London and New York, Baltimore or Philadelphia any handy packages containing exhibits for the world's fair. The only charge on packages of this character between the points named will be the actual cost of handling.

RAINS IN MINNESOTA.

St. Cloud, Minn., Oct. 14.—A heavy rain fell here last night, and the Great Northern is in receipt of advices that rains have fallen all along their line in North Dakota during the day. In this vicinity it can do nothing but facilitate the fall plowing.

UNDER MARTIAL LAW.

Sensational News from Montevideo.

Half a Hundred People Killed in the Recent Uprising—A Man Who Could Not be Bribed.

New York, Oct. 14.—The Herald this morning publishes a special cable dispatch from Montevideo which says that 53 of the revolutionists were shot and killed and as many more wounded in the recent uprising. The number of those participating in the uprising was about 600 men.

It had been planned to assassinate President Obes, and a number of men had been detailed to perform this work, but the plot was discovered in time to adopt measures for the protection of the executive.

The government supporters declare that the Catholic clergy are largely responsible for the revolt, and that they urged the junta on in its outbreak.

Montevideo has been placed under martial law. It has leaked out that $300,000 was offered the colonel of the artillery to turn over the town to the rebels, but that he refused.

TO BOYCOTT THE TOWN.

Peculiar Action Taken by a Southern Alliance.

Bonham, Tex., Oct. 14.—One of the latest moves of the Farmers alliance, and one that causes a decided sensation in this section, is the boycotting of the town of Ladonia, in the northeastern part of the county.

The boycott was inaugurated because the town council enacted a law prohibiting the running at large of stock in the corporation limits.

The boycott was brought about by the impounding of three head of horses belonging to G. W. McGee, a member of the alliance. Prang Gap alliance is the first to open war, and their resolutions are as follows:

"Resolved—1. That we forever sever our commercial relations with the town of Ladonia, and use our influence in behalf of other towns, unless said town of Ladonia shall so amend its stock law and return McGee's stock or the equivalent.

"2. That we petition all alliance and good people in Delta, Fannin and Hunt counties to take some action to secure the return of said stock and an amendment to the Ladonia stock law."

MADE A CLEAN SWEEP.

Democrats Score a Victory in Indianapolis.

Under the Australian Ballot Law the Workingman Can Cast His Ballot According to His Wishes.

Indianapolis, Oct. 14.—The democrats gained a decided victory in the city election yesterday. While the campaign was one of the most aggressive that the city has known, the election passed off quietly.

The ballot was cast under the Australian system and an exceptionally large vote was polled, aggregating about 70,000.

The democrats elected their candidate for mayor by increased majority.

The democrats also elected the police judge, city clerk and six councilmen-at-large, giving them full control of the common council.

BOY SHOT HIS EMPLOYER.

Gainesville, Tex., Oct. 14.—A boy, Campbell by name, shot and killed Wash Hammond in the Chickasaw nation, 30 miles west of Gainesville, yesterday. The killing was the result of a quarrel about the boy's wages.

THE BOILER LET GO.

Frightful Explosion at Tipton, Indiana.

A Number of Workmen and Boys Injured, Some of Them Undoubtedly Fatally.

Tipton, Ind., Oct. 14.—Shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday evening one of the 75-horse-power boilers in the large heading factory of A. R. Coleman of this place, let go, completely demolishing the building and scattering machinery all over the yards.

The boiler was hurled 50 feet into the air and blown into a hundred pieces. There were 50 men and boys engaged at work in the factory, a number of whom were more or less injured. The plant, which was valued at $15,000, is almost a total wreck.

The badly injured are as follows: John Weir, engineer, badly scalded and scalp wounds; Fred Mead, scalded; Jno. Purvis, shoulder broken and internal injury; Orville Purvis, scalded; Charles Cole, internal injury; Charles Roth, spine injured and frightful bruises; M. Stevens, badly scalded and cut on the head; Amos Stevens, skull fractured and side crushed. The last three men are dangerously injured and will die.

WAGES GO DOWN.

Example of the Workings of Protection.

Carnegie Orders a Cut All Along the Line.

Sixty Per Cent. Taken Off the Workmen's Pay.

His "Infant Industry" Needs More Bolstering Up.

Can the Tin Soldier of Ohio Explain to the Voters Why, Under Protection, This Condition of Affairs Exists.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 14.—The Times this morning publishes an interview with an employe at the Edgar Thomson Steel works, Braddock, Carnegie & Co., to the effect that yesterday afternoon the Carnegie firm presented a preliminary scale to a portion of their employes at that works, but which virtually referred to all. Representatives, it is said, were summoned to the office from all departments of the converting mills and were presented with copies of the new wage scale.

The temporary scale, as it is called, cuts down the tonnage men in the converting mill to a great extent; the reduction in many instances being from $3.20 to $2.50 a day.

In some instances the reduction reaches 60 per cent.

The greater reduction affects the better paid men. The men who have been making $150 per month will hereafter make $90 per month under the new scale.

On the whole, however, for the 3,000 men employed at the plant the reduction will be an average of only about 10 per cent. It is claimed for the firm that the cut is counteracted by increased capacity.

TO TEST IT IN COURT.

The Texas Railroads to Make a Fight.

They Object to the Commission's Rulings.

Much Legal Talent Has Been Retained and the New Law's Constitutionality Will be Vigorously Attacked.

New York, Oct. 14.—The Sun says: The trouble between the Texas railroads and the state railroad commission over reduction of freight rates is likely to come to a head very soon. The legal advisers of the Southern Pacific, Atchison, Missouri Pacific, and Missouri, Kansas & Texas systems have had a number of meetings in New York during the last few days.

"The companies might have submitted to Commissioner Reagan's first reduction of rates," said a general counsel of one of the roads yesterday, "but when the commissioner ordered the railroads to compress their cotton as well as cut the rate in half, they thought it was going too far.

"When the first schedule was announced the railroads asked whether they should be required to compress the cotton for shippers. 'Do as you please,' was the reply. The companies decided not to compress the cotton. There was no money in carrying cotton. The roads began carrying the cotton just as they received it. The commission came around again and said that the companies would have to compress it or the rates would be reduced still lower, in order to allow for the cost of compression. This single item amounts to from $100,000 to $150,000 annually for one of the railroads. Heretofore an allowance was made in the rate for the shipment of compressed or uncompressed cotton."

The counsel of the companies have been studying a plan of attack. They have sifted the act creating the commission, and have decided to contest its constitutionality. The chief ground for this claim will be that the act provides that the decisions of the commission shall be final and that there can be no appeal.

It is, in a sense, the case of the Minnesota state railroad commission over again. That commission reduced the rate on milk on the Milwaukee & St. Paul and the company appealed to the supreme court, which denied a hearing, and held that the decision of the commission was final.

The United States supreme court held that the act creating the Minnesota railroad commission was in conflict with the constitution of the United States.

Counsel for one of the roads said that probably a bill in chancery would be filed in one of the federal courts.

The railroads have been preparing for a bitter struggle but it seems that the Texas railroad act was carefully framed with full knowledge of the Minnesota case and Commissioner Reagan expected opposition when he ordered the new rates. The contest will probably attract more attention than any railroad case that has been in the courts for a long time.

THE BOSTONIAN ASHORE.

The Layland Liner in Bad Shape.

Four Tugs Try to Relieve the Stranded Steamer, But Without Success.

Hull, Mass., Oct. 14.—The Layland line steamer Bostonian which left Boston for Liverpool this morning is ashore on George's island shoal.

9:30 a. m.—Although four tugs have been attempting to haul the steamer Bostonian off the shoals they have as yet been unsuccessful.

WILL IT EVER CEASE?

Not Till a Grover Cleveland is Elected.

Terrible State of Affairs in the Census Bureau.

Sixty-Four Hundred Thousand Dollars Expended, the Reports Incomplete, and the Government in Debt.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 14.—Besides those innumerable and glaring errors in the Eleventh census there are many other features of Mr. Porter's wretched work in the census office which demand the attention of congress.

What, for instance, has become of the money which has been so lavishly expended on a census that is worse than a failure?

Mr. Porter admits that at the present time, 16 months after the enumeration began, the liberal appropriation of $6,400,000 which congress gave to him has been exhausted.

He also admits that it will take four or five years to complete the census.

The census of 1880 when done cost only a little more than $4,000,000, the census of 1870 less than that.

But apparently we have only begun to spend the money on the census of 1890.

Mr. Porter's modest proposition is for the coming congress to appropriate $2,000,000 or $3,000,000 more and with that he can get the work half done.

It appears, therefore, that we are to expend on a moderate computation $12,000,000 or $15,000,000 for a work that will be of absolutely no value whatever except for paper stock.

Will Mr. Porter be good enough to explain why this census should cost three times as much as the census of 1880?

It may be granted that there were more questions asked this time, but $7,000,000 or $8,000,000 is a good deal of money to spend for untrustworthy information as to how many persons have sore eyes or ingrowing toenails.

It is useless to ask Mr. Porter about these things. Nature has made such provisions in his case that he is incapable of answering a plain question plainly.

About the employment of those punching and enumerating machines, for example—those devices which have riddled the census through and through with inaccuracies, there is something very odd Congress could do nothing better than to look into it.

It is not supposable that the census bureau uses these machines without compensation to the owners, but if the owners have had any compensation so far the records of the bureau do not show it, notwithstanding that the machines have been in use now for nearly a year and a half.

Now, the records of the expenditures in the census bureau are public property and any citizen of the United States has the right to examine them as much as he pleases.

But for some reason or other the officials in the treasury department have taken it upon themselves to deny this right. You can see the expenditures of the agricultural department or the navy or for public buildings or for anything else that occurs to you, but the census bureau account is a sealed book.

Why? Well, why is Raum retained and why are many other strange things done for partisan or personal reasons under this administration?

But the officials of the sixth auditor's office, where the accounts are kept, will give you any information about them you may desire. Oh, yes, at least so they assured your correspondent the other day.

"Very well, then," he said. "What have been the payments made by the bureau on account of the punching machines?"

A superfluous clerk was despatched to get the information. He was gone a long time. When he came back he had a whispered conversation with the auditor.

"It appears," said the auditor, "that there have been no payments on that account."

"Well, what is the arrangement, then, for the use of the machines?" I asked.

"I don't know," said the auditor doubtfully, "but I will have the census bureau called up by telephone and find out."

So the superfluous clerk was despatched to the telephone to ask questions of Mr Stoddard, of the census bureau. After a minute or two he came back and said:

"Mr. Stoddard says he can explain it better if you will come up and see him personally."

The auditor seemed a little annoyed. He said:

"Tell Mr. Stoddard I want him to tell you now and here just what the arrangement is about paying for the punching machines, and if any payments have been made."

I judge the clerk must have put a flea in Mr. Stoddard's ear. He came back much more quickly than before and said:

"Mr. Stoddard says that the arrangement was that the bureau should buy the smaller machines for $125 apiece and pay $1,000 a year royalty on the others, and there have been no payments yet on that account."

"Well, well! Is that so?"

Then it appears that besides running through the heavy appropriations of congress Mr. Porter is piling up a debt, too, in his bureau.

He has 3,000 of the small printing machines, on which he owes $375,000, and has not paid a cent. He has 120 of the large machines, on which he owes a year and a half's rent at $1,000 a year, or $180,000 there. Total indebtedness of the bureau on the machine account, $555,000, and neither contract nor ovucher on file in the treasury department to show it.

But the payment of these prices even on the long time system in favor with Mr. Porter has an odd look. To make the smaller machine costs perhaps $4.50 apiece. To sell it for $125 is pretty fair profit.

The larger machine, being more elaborate, costs more to manufacture. Perhaps it costs as much as $75. To rent it at $1,000 is quite an agreeable transaction—to the owner.

It is certainly strange that the government should be paying any such prices for inventions which merely assist the careless and indifferent clerks to perpetrate blunders.

It is still stranger that throughout the whole bureau there is an entirely different idea of the arrangement. From division chiefs to clerks the understanding is that the government does not buy either machine, but rents it at $1.50 a day for the smaller and $1,000 a year for the larger. No employe of the bureau has ever heard of any other arrangement.

If that is so the government is paying or to pay more than $1,000,000 in a year in rentals for the devices.

There is no evidence on file in the public departments to show whether Mr. Stoddard or the employes have the right idea about this matter. There is no evidence as to what the arrangement really was with the owner of the machines. There is no evidence of any payment or intention of payment. There is nothing except the bald fact that the census has already cost one-third more than the census of 1880.

It has been repeatedly charged in the public press that Mr. Porter was interested in the machines. Mr. Porter has never taken the trouble to deny or explain these charges.

Whether he is or not, whether the government is to pay $1,000,000 a year or only $555,000, it is a most extraordinary state of things that there have been no payments on this account and no public record about it.

The money which congress appropriated for the census was in allotments for different purposes, so much for printing, so much for enumeration, so much for home and mortgage statistics, and so [illegible]

[illegible] admitted that under Mr. Porter's [illegible] money set apart for one [illegible] been used for another in spite of a provision of the United States statutes which forbids it.

Mr. Porter has not denied this either.

It has been charged that persons in influential positions in the bureau have levied monthly tribute upon employes subordinate to them. The details, the names and the instances have been brought to Mr. Porter's attention. He has neither denied the allegations nor taken any steps to stop the practice.

There is still a darker side to this unexampled story of mismanagement.

Ever since the census bureau was started it has been the source of more scandals than all the other public offices in Washington together. It is notorious in this city that women of dissolute lives have found easy employment in Mr. Porter's department. It is hardly necessary to refer to the well known case of "the Queen of the Census," who was retained there in spite of the protests of respectable women under her, until public sentiment compelled Porter to dismiss her. There are other cases just as bad. Within a few months three notorious characters of the street have been removed from the bureau because the honest women who worked with them were threatening public exposure of the immorality that was going on about them. The stories that are told and vouched for in Washington about certain women that are employed in the bureau and the influences that led to their appointment are simply hideous.

Mr. Porter's bureau was exempt from the operations of the civil service law. There was absolutely no bar to the employment of immoral as well as incompetent persons.

Mr. Porter is said to have smiled sarcastically when the possibility of a congressional investigation of his crazy quilt concern was mentioned to him.

In this connection I recall a story that came out about a year ago when a young woman employed in the census bureau committed suicide, and it was discovered from her letters and papers that she was supported by the member of congress who had secured her appointment to the census bureau to eke out of his own purse.

It is possible that Mr. Porter was thinking as he smiled of some other stories like that.

Or it is possible that he was merely reflecting on the large number of democrats he has appointed to office since he discovered that the next house would be democratic.

FIRE IN A PRINT SHOP.

The Nashville American in Flames.

All the Compositors Had a Narrow Escape and Some of Them Were Badly Burned.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 14.—Fire starting at 9:30 last night very badly damaged the American building, inflicting a loss of about $10,000, fully covered by insurance. The fire was probably incendiary. It was discovered in the hall on the first floor, at the alley way entrance and the flames were mounting nearly to the second floor. The alarm was instantly given to the printers on the fourth floor, some of whom escaped via the editorial room. The flames cut off the escape of the others by the stairway, and fully twenty men took to the fire escape. The lack of prompt ladder connection kept them on the fire escape until the flames were roaring around them in every direction.

The last men out were badly burned, and the injuries of M. O. Brooks and H. W. Phelps were very serious, though it is hoped not fatal.

J. K. Muirshead was also badly burned. The foreman, Edward Buchanan, escaped from the front window by a rope which was kept for just such an emergency.

H. G. Shearon, who, with Buchanan, was caught by the flames before getting to the fire escape, got out through the smoke, made his way to the roof of the Y. M. C. A. building and was rescued.

The composition room, telegraph room, office of the Associated Press and United Press were all gutted. The telegraph operators escaped. The editorial rooms were damaged only by water and the press room very slightly.

PERISHING FROM HUNGER.

Russian Peasants Flocking Into the Cities.

A Horrible State of Affairs Reported Existing Among the People of the Czar's Domain.

London, Oct. 14.—Advices from various points in Russia state that great masses of peasants are flocking into the towns from the country districts, perishing from the want of food.

At least 55,000 have passed through Tulnien alone seeking food. Many are falling by the roadside and dying in their tracks.

The wanderers have no fuel and the cold is intense. Incendiarism and pillaging are spreading.

The destitute Jews expelled from Kieff, Astrachan, Moscow and Odessa are swelling the ranks of the famished thousands. The local authorities everywhere are paralyzed for the want of funds.

The organization of relief committees for the distribution of corn to the sufferers has been suspended.

CALLED ON THE PRESIDENT.

Washington, Oct. 14.—A delegation of 150 veterans, on their way to the Union Veteran Legion convention at Reading, Pa., was received by the president. Senator Harris headed a Tennessee delegation that had an audience with the president.

"Save who can!" was the frantic cry of Napoleon to his army at Waterloo. Save health and strength while you can, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is advice that applies to all, both young and old. Don't wait until disease fastens on you; begin at once.

A CAMPAIGN OF BLUFF

Turned to One of Evasion and Explanation.

Changed Tactics by the Ohio Republicans.

The Bold Stand Made by Governor Campbell Has Driven the Liar Into His Hole.

Columbus, O., Oct. 14.—Two weeks of actual campaigning on the part of the democrats have completely changed the drift of Ohio politics. The republican campaign opened a full month before the democrats began, and during that time the republicans had it all their own way.

The progress which they made was terrific. They had McKinley elected six weeks before the votes were cast, and were only interested to know whether the majority would be over or under 50,000. The first shock to their confidence was Gov. Campbell's action in beginning his campaign in the very heart of Ohio republicanism, the Western Reserve.

The brave and apparently reckless manner in which the governor challenged his opponents in their strongest stronghold opened more eyes than those of the Western Reserve republicans, who hadn't heard a democratic speech for years before.

The returns hadn't been coming in over three days from the governor's Western Reserve meetings before there was a panic in the republican camp.

If the Western Reserve folks once got to hearing tariff reform speeches, reading tariff reform literature and thinking tariff reform logic there was danger in the rear of McKinley's protection army, for the Western Reserve people are intelligent thinkers and fearless voters once their interest in a cause is aroused.

Before Campbell had made half a dozen speeches on the tariff the republicans were insisting that silver was the real issue, and John Sherman even tried to revive the force bill and southern elections as a campaign issue.

The whole republican campaign, since Campbell took the stump, has been reversed. At the outset it was determined to elect McKinley by bluff, bluster and lies. For a month there wasn't a McKinley meeting held at which less than [illegible]000 people were present, according to the accounts in republican newspapers. He never passed through a railroad station that hundreds of brawny workmen were not present to cheer him and shake his hand.

There was never a republican parade less than a mile long and never a meeting in a village, with a manufacturing interest large enough to require a smokestack, where the paraders did not carry tin canes or wear tin badges cut off tin plates "made in the new tin plate factory just started" in the place. This exaggeration and lying was too extensive to have been accidental. It was the deliberate and prearranged system of the republican campaign. It was intended to lead the public to believe that Ohio was in a perfect furor of enthusiasm over McKinley, and for a time it served its purpose.

Not only the republican newspapers and republican politicians lent themselves to the deception, but Major McKinley himself never allowed such a little thing as the truth to stand in the way of his making a good point. He has uttered more deliberate falsehoods on the stump in the past six weeks than have ever been crammed down Ohio throats in any six years before.

Nowhere but in Ada, where he knew that he would be contradicted, has he omitted to declare that "the wool of the world is lower" as one explanation of the fall in price of Ohio wool. In every speech but the one at Ada, he has declared that tin was cheaper than ever before. He declares everywhere that he has "a list of 50 articles in common use which are cheaper to-day than when the tariff bill was passed," but he never cites anything from his list except sugar, boots and shoes, binding twine and other articles, which have declined because the tax on them was removed or reduced, an explanation of the decline in price which he invariably omits to give.

Major McKinley has missed no opportunity to add to the halo of bluff in which his campaign is enveloped by theatrical exhibitions. His personal participation in the contemptible tin plate fraud at Piqua was only one instance in which he has lent himself to methods worthy of a constabulary contest in ward politics.

The republican campaign was begun too soon for that sort of work. The McKinley balloon was an imposing spectacle, as it was inflated, but it collapsed disastrously when unkind persons with a prejudice in favor of facts began to prod it. Gov. Campbell tore a fresh rent in it with every speech he made. The McKinleyites, who two weeks ago danced a war dance around it, with red-fire illumination, are now floundering in the folds of the collapsed affair, struggling to retain solid footing.

Two weeks ago every issue of a republican paper in Ohio exploited some new evidence of McKinley's popularity and tin plate prosperity.

To-day the same paper is filled with "explanations," "denials," and "contradictions" of Gov. Campbell's speeches. The "tin plate industry" has been chased out of the state, and the very word tin becomes a byword and a laughing-stock in every village in the state.

The fame of the Piqua performance has spread to every little hamlet. Tin plate badges are being laughed out of sight, and the expression "tin plate liar," originated at the beginning of the campaign by the republicans, as a term of opprobrium for democrats, has become instead a term of derision applicable to the republicans, and is so understood throughout the state.

Wool can't be mentioned at a public meeting without raising a laugh, and the farmers wear for badges tufts of wool on a ribbon, with the inscription, "24 cents per pound: this is what the tariff has done for us."

The gross exaggeration of the size and enthusiasm of republican meetings has reacted also. No republican paper ventures now to put over 7,000 or 8,000 people at meetings that two weeks ago would have rated at 50,000, and it is a standard joke throughout the state, in speaking of the size of a meeting to ask whether the figures "are republican measure." The campaign of bluff, bluster and lies has been transformed into one of explanation, evasion and denial.

How completely the republican crest has been clipped and republican bumptiousness chilled is shown by a little incident that was not an incident of the joint debate at Ada. The republicans had arranged a scheme to bolster up the tin plate fraud and stampede the meeting while it was in progress.

Telegrams were to be sent from concerns in various manufacturing cities reading to the effect that "we shipped today so many hundred boxes of tin plate." The Piqua concern was to telegraph an offer of $1,000 to any one who would prove that their stuff was not real terne plate.

A Columbus chemist, a republican, who analyzed a sample of the tin and pronounced it iron instead of steel, was to telegraph an explanation that, perhaps, it might have been steel.

All these telegrams coming in while he spoke, were to be read by Major McKinley to the presumed utter discomfiture and rout of Gov. Campbell.

The scheme worked beautifully. The telegrams all came in according to arrangement and were delivered to Major McKinley. Republicans who were in the secret edged around nervously, watching the little heap of yellow business and wondering "when he was going to spring the telegrams." They were never sprung.

Major McKinley, or his advisers, were afraid to consummate the trick. They did not dare to carry it out for fear the audience would burst into laughter and jeers instead of applause. The major never so much as mentioned tin in his whole speech.

One of the worst confessions of republican desperation is the attack upon Gov. Campbell's financial credit, an attack which, although ostensibly frowned upon by Major McKinley and the republican leaders, is being continued day after day in the principal republican organ in the state.

An interesting side light is thrown upon this affair and the relation of Major McKinley to it by an editorial paragraph in the Cleveland republican organ, a paper which is ably seconding the organ of the ballot box forgery in its attack upon the governor.

The Cleveland paper in defending the republican leaders from the charge of instigating the attack, remarks that the story of Ralph W. Wilkinson was submitted to it some time before it was printed in New York, and that the question of using it was discussed with Major McKinley and the republican state committee.

It is not to be expected that the republicans would admit that the article was approved by Major McKinley and his committee, or that they advised the Cleveland paper to print it, but the fact that, after consideration by the major and his committee, it was printed in a republican organ in New York and other reprinted in the republican organ of Ohio is suggestive, as is the fact that Major McKinley has as yet made no public condemnation of this feature of the campaign on his side.

BETTER HIRE SOME SAILORS

The Dispatch Wrecked by Poor Seamanship.

The Commanding Officer Calculated Wrongly and Piled the Craft Up Among the Breakers.

New York, Oct. 14.—A special to the World from the scene of the wreck of the Despatch says that Lieut. Mulligan was in the pilot house when Assateague light was sighted early Saturday morning. Mistaking it for Winter Quarter shoals light, some twelve miles further north, he ordered the ship to put closer into land. The command was obeyed, and in a few minutes the ship ran aground on the treacherous shoals.

ONE HUNDRED CRIMES.

The Awful Story Told by a Girl on Her Deathbed.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 14.—Mrs. Fannie Decker was arrested here charged with performing one hundred criminal operations, the one leading to the arrest being that performed upon Mrs. Lena Bresin of Hyde Park.

The story of the crime is as strange as it is shocking. Mrs. Bresin—nee Lena Muller—was betrayed by Michael Bresin some months ago, under promise of marriage. Shortly after that Bresin disappeared. Deserted by her lover, and fearful of facing the derision of the world alone, Miss Muller called upon Mrs. Decker, who informed her that she could easily rid her of her embarrassment.

The operation was performed last Monday. On Wednesday Bresin returned, explained his absence and married the girl that day. The same night she was taken sick, and on Friday night her physicians told her she was about to die. Then she sent for an officer, and her confession was made in writing and signed. The mode of operation of Mrs. Decker is described in the details of this confession. The woman seems to have made a confidant of her latest patron, telling her of one hundred similar operations which she had performed.

Mrs. Decker, who is the wife of a man of means, has been arrested for the criminal operation, and will be prosecuted for murder if, as is expected, Mrs. Bresin dies.

ROBBED AT A GRAVE.

A Highwayman's Strange Place to Work.

Edmund D. Landers Found Dying From His Injuries on the Tomb of His Daughter.

Brockton, Mass., Oct. 14.—Edmund D. Landers, an aged wealthy and retired merchant, was found in a senseless condition at the grave of his only child, a daughter, who died 40 years ago. He will probably die.

He rallied sufficiently to state that while he was visiting the grave Sunday afternoon he was strangled by a highwayman and relieved of his money and valuables. There is no clue to the perpetrator of the deed.

TOO HOT FOR THE INDIANS.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Gen. A. McD. McCook, commanding the department of Arizona, recommends in his annual report to the secretary of war that the San Carlos Indians be removed from their present reservation to some point east, as the temperature in midsummer is 110 degrees in the shade and to keep Indians and troops there is inhuman.

HARD TO IDENTIFY.

Washington, Oct. 14.—The police raided a Chinese gambling house last night, and in police court one of the captured celestials, known as "Charlie," was held on suspicion of being Lun Fey, who is wanted in Portland, Ogn., for the murder of a fellow countryman there.

LAUNDRY MEN MEET.

St. Louis, Oct. 14.—The National Laundrymen's association is holding its eighth annual session in this city. Two hundred delegates represent nearly every city in the union. The convention is regarded as one of the most important in the history of the organization and will probably last three days.

HALFORD'S CONDITION.

Washington, Oct. 14.—The condition of Private Secretary Halford does not show the improvement hoped for by his friends, and it is causing them some anxiety.

IMMEDIATE TRANSPORTATION.

Washington, Oct. 14.—The treasury department has decided that goods may be exported at New Orleans for Central American ports under the immediate transportation act without undergoing an examination at New Orleans.

E. J. TOTTEN PROMOTED.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Ephraim J. Totten, of Findlay, has been appointed a chief of division in the pension office with a salary of $2,000 per annum, vice Wm. H. Barker, of New York, resigned.

JOHN HOEY'S DOWNFALL.

From Messenger Boy to President of a Great Company.

Malfeasance in Office Charged Against the Two Officers Whose Places Have Been Filled.

Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 14.—The story relative to the double-dealing practiced by President Hoey and Vice President Clapp Spooner, of the Adams Express company, has caused much astonishment in this city, in which Mr. Spooner has lived for 30 years.

He resides in a palatial house on Golden Hill, the fashionable residential street; has been a pillar of Christ (Episcopal) church, and has always been regarded as a model of unimpeachable uprightness in business dealings.

He was seen by a reporter yesterday, and when the purpose of the visit was announced displayed much agitation. He said: "I have nothing whatever to say for publication. I do not know what the papers have to say, as I have not read them, but if I had, I would still have nothing to say."

Mr. Spooner's health has been poor during the past year and he has also been greatly affected by grief at the recent death of his wife.

Henry Sanford, whose investigations resulted in the discomfiture of Hoey and Spooner, lives within a stones throw of the latter's house.

For years the two men have not spoken to each other and it has been common talk here that Hoey and Spooner were chiefly responsible for keeping Sanford out of the president's chair of the Adams express company years ago.

Hoey had advanced in life from a messenger boy to president of the Adams express company and his downfall, together with that of Mr. Spooner, is charged to malfesance in office.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

Chattanooga Rolls up a Majority for the Right Party.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 14.—In the municipal election yesterday Garnett Andrews, democrat, was elected by a plurality of 189 votes.

The vote for mayor stood: Andrews, democrat, 1,744; Williams, republican, 1,542, and Irvine, independent, 113.

Irvine is a colored man and formerly circuit court clerk.

Out of eight aldermen elected four are democrats.

HIPPOLYTE AND HARRISON.

Ex-Minister Douglass Defends Them.

The Former Is Not a Tyrant and the Latter is the Nicest Possible Kind of a Man.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Frederick Douglass, ex-minister to Hayti, delivered a lecture on Hayti last night at the Metropolitan African Methodist church in this city before an audience composed largely of negroes, but including many of the English delegates to the ecumenical council.

Mr. Douglass replied with feeling to the criticisms of his policy in the Mole St. Nicholas affair and made the suggestive announcement that if he had done any man an injustice in his story of the matter he stood ready to retract, but if driven to the wall, he said, he had it in his power to put before the whole world all the correspondence about the affair in a different light, and a light some gentlemen would not like to see.

He described the Mole as the Gibraltar of the Carribean sea and said that the nation that would hold this stronghold would be mistress of the sea.

Mr. Douglass denied that Hippolyte was a tyrant and he also defended the character of President Harrison, whom he described as conscientious and humane, and whose advice to Mr. Douglass, when the latter went to Hayti, the speaker gave as follows: "Douglass, do all you can to help the Haytian people and persuade them to blot out as much as they can the reproaches hurled at them."

Tremendous cheers followed the announcement by Mr. Douglass that he was for Harrison for the next term.

THE SAALE ARRIVES.

New York, Oct. 14.—The Saale, of the North German Lloyd line, arrived at her dock this morning. She was 24 hours overdue. The record of the log shows one of the roughest trips ever made by the ship. None of her passengers were injured, and the ship rode without damage; but the force of the waves was shown by the coating of salt on the smokestacks.

OPPOSED TO FURTHER WAR.

Dublin, Oct. 14.—The Freeman's Journal in commenting on the manifesto issued by the Parnellites, bitterly deplored their manifest intention to nurture the spirit of faction. "Unending strife," says the journal, "is the prospect they place before the country. The program thus offered is the greatest act of cruel, senseless treachery ever perpetrated upon the Irish nation."

SENECA REPUBLICANS.

Tremont, O., Oct. 14.—Republicans held a county convention and went through the usual form of nominating a ticket as follows: Representative, J. L. Hart; probate judge, J. B. B. Dickinson; sheriff, Alex Harden; commissioner, J. G. Brugger; infirmary director, James McNary; recorder, E. R. Tyler; surveyor, S. W. Grant; coroner, R. M. Durbin.

MRS. BENDER DEAD.

Upper Sandusky, Oct. 14.—(Special)—Mrs. Bender, the woman who was so horribly burned yesterday morning by an explosion of turpentine, died this morning at 5 o'clock. She suffered the most terrible torture.

DENIES THE REPORT.

Berlin, Oct. 14.—The North German Gazette yesterday denied that an understanding has been arrived at between Germany and the United States by which American cereals are to be admitted to Germany free of duty.

STRUCK BY A STORM.

Brighton, Eng., Oct. 14.—A terrific gale arose here yesterday afternoon, blowing most of the structures in the course of erection for Buffalo Bill's wild west show and wrecking them utterly.

PHILLIPS BROOKS CONFIRMED.

Boston, Oct. 14.—The Rev. Phillips Brooks was confirmed this morning as bishop of the diocese of Massachusetts.

Pot Pie Dumplings

BY MRS. DEARBORN,

Principal Boston Cooking School.

Mix and sift together 1 pint pastry flour, 1 heaping tea sp. Cleveland's Baking Powder and ½ tea sp. salt. Beat 1 egg until thick and light, add ⅔ cup cold water, stir this into the dry mixture, and enough more water to make a dough stiff enough to hold its shape when dropped from the spoon.

Drop the dumplings on a plate a little distance apart and cook in a closely covered steamer for fifteen minutes; or, drop them on top of the boiling stew and cook for the same length of time.

The secret of having them light and tender lies in their not being disturbed while cooking, and in not having much liquid around them, if cooked on top of the stew.—(Copyright, 1891, by Cleveland Baking Powder Co.)

Use only Cleveland's baking powder, the proportions are made for that.

LOCAL POLITICAL NOTES.

Governor Campbell will arrive from Bowling Green on Friday evening, and will speak at Memorial hall Citizens may expect a rousing speech.

To-morrow is registration day. Every democrat should see that his name is on the book. Naturalized voters must present their papers.

There is confidence among democratic voters that a victory awaits them on election day. A better ticket could hardly be presented than is before the people this fall. Vote it straight.

Sheriff Stuart is not as chipper as he was. His opponent, Harry Dowling, has him on the move.

Voters of Lucas county have an opportunity to condemn the Hyatt steal, which kept Foster Warren from occupying the seat in the state board of equalization, to which he was honestly elected. The county suffered from this by the excessive raise in valuation. Vote for Warren for commissioner.

The fact that Dr. Beckwith, republican candidate for coroner, in his ardent desire to be elected, has promised Dr. Henzler all the autopsies, has alienated the majority of the physicians of Toledo from his candidacy. However, it is idle to speculate, Dr. Van Pelt, the democratic candidate, is a regular physician, and will be elected. He has made no promises, and enjoys the good will of all physicians in Toledo, regardless of politics.

Mr. Thomas E. Peckinpaugh, democratic candidate for state auditor, will be in Toledo next week visiting friends and looking after business.

The republican committee is sending out pleading circulars to voters requesting them to vote the straight ticket. This is some of the twaddle in the circular:

"If you want to protect your home and country against cheap labor and competition of foreign countries you must register and vote.

"Vote the straight republican ticket and you will vote to protect your home.

"Take your republican neighbors and friends with you. Explain to them the importance of the great issues to be decided at the coming election.

"Our country is now prosperous and labor well employed.

"A change of policy wuld be disastrous.

"The democrats are active. If we would win every republican must do his duty."

It must be distressing to the brethren to find that their untiring labors to "protect the home" fall on such barren ground. The committee will find that it is not only the democrats who are active, but a large number of republicans as well, who will assist in defeating McKinleyism this fall.

Postmaster Brown and Griffin had an interview in front of the postoffice yesterday afternoon. Brown finds Griffin a hard customer to deal with.

L. K. Parks has been selected as chairman for the Sherman meeting to-night. How much more genteel it would have been to notice the smiling countenance of the genial Col. Isaac D. Smead on the platform! The colonel is such a rampant follower of the Mansfield man. It appears as if Chairman Tucker cannot discover the peculiar fitness of some things.

THEY GAVE UP THE JOB.

Gear's Opponents Having a Hard Time of It.

The Attempt to Hold a Senatorial Convention at Upper Sandusky Proved a Dismal Failure.

Upper Sandusky, O., Oct. 14.—(Special)—The republican convention here yesterday was a funny affair. It was called for the purpose of placing a nominee in the field for state senator. Seneca hadn't a single delegate present, and Crawford but three: Hon. Horace Deal, Editor John E. Hopley, jr., of the Bucyrus Telegraph, and a man named Keifer.

The handful of delegates met in the opera house at 11 a. m. Several speeches were made and it was developed that those present to represent Wyandot were opposed to a candidate being nominated, but wanted the people's nominee. Robert McCammon, indorsed.

The trio from Crawford began at once to show their teeth and the afternoon session resulted in a heated wrangle.

Crawford wouldn't give in, and placed in nomination Clark T. Ludwig, of that county.

Wyandot was still for McCammon, and a couple of ballots were taken, resulting in Wyandot casting her full vote for McCammon on each ballot, and the Bucyrus trio Crawford's full vote for Ludwig.

Balloting was then given up and more wrangling followed. Finally the sponge was thrown up and the convention closed shop, never to meet again.

M'KINLEY'S SONG OF TIN.

Apologies to J. W. Riley.

Just listen, Mr. Farmer,
  You know my latest plan—
I'm trying hard to please you
  In every way I can,
The good times are a-coming,
  So don't loose any sleep,
For things will be a-booming
    When
      Tin
        Gets
          Cheap!

Don't mind about the mortgage,
  Just keep the interest paid
Until our tin plate jugglers
  Have collared all the trade;
Then you may bet your pumpkins
  Big benefits you'll reap
In prices for your produce—
    When
      Tin
        Gets
          Cheap!

Don't worry over taxes—
  They're only small affairs,
Nor bother with your fences
  Nor any house repairs;
Because its more important
  That you should wait and keep
Your eyes upon the future—
    When
      Tin
        Gets
          Cheap!

Don't ask me any questions
  About the price of wool,
But go ahead with shearing
  And keep your temper cool;
For lo, a mightier question
  Is ours—yea, grand and deep!
And on it depends the nation—
    When
      Tin
        Gets
          Cheap!

So cast your vote discreetly—
  That is, of course, for me,
For I'm the tin plate orator
  And toot for the g. o. p.
Don't snow me under this time—
  Old Uncle Sam would weep,
Because he can't do business
    'Till
      Tin
        Gets
          Cheap!

AT FT. RECOVERY TO-DAY.

Gov. Campbell Makes a Non-Partisan Address.

Thousands of People, Gathered to Celebrate the Battle of St. Clair, Welcome the Chief Executive.

Ft. Recovery, O., Oct. 14.—(Special)—Governor Campbell arrived here shortly before one o'clock this afternoon and was welcomed by a large delegation, and with booming cannon.

He was driven to the grove, south of the town, where the centennial celebration of the battle of St. Clair is in progress.

He was given a warm reception by the assembled thousands and made a non-partisan address.

The town is handsomely decorated and the citizens are paying him every attention. Before leaving for the grove he was called to the balcony of the hotel and made a short address.

SOME SPICY CURRENT TOPICS

Of Local and Neighborhood Interest.

Notes and Comments on Incidents Occurring Daily—Prepared for Readers Who are Hustled for Time.

COUNTRY ELECTION JUDGES.

Secretary King, of the board of elections, is busily engaged to-day instructing the township trustees and clerks on the new system of conducting elections. The office has been crowded all day. Supplies were sent out to-day for registration to-morrow.

STATE BANK ORGANIZATION.

The local bankers have been notified that a meeting will be held at Columbus, Nov. 5, with a view of organizing a State Bankers' Association. Toledo banks represented in the call are the Northern National, Ketcham's National, Merchants' National, and the Union Savings bank.

CRIMINAL COURT BEGINS.

Judge Harmon convened criminal court this morning, greatly improved in health. The case of the state against John Tapper was taken up. Tapper is charged with cutting with intent to kill one Abraham Taynor at Manhattan last September.

TRYING IT ONCE MORE.

The case of Thomas Beauden against the Lake Shore Railroad company was taken up in Judge Lemmon's court this morning. It is an action to recover $5,000 for personal injury. The case was tried last term and a verdict returned for the plaintiff allowing him $2,625 damages, which was set aside.

CLOSED FOR THE SEASON.

The Club House at Middle Bass closes to-day. The season has been a most successful one, and very much enjoyed by all the members of the club, who find that each succeeding year makes their membership of more value, both to them and in price to those who wish to sell.

WILL GIVE A BALL.

A well attended meeting of the Toledo Association Union Ex-Prisoners of War was held last evening. It was decided to give a grand ball on Thanksgiving eve, November 25, at Memorial hall. The arrangements were placed in the hands of a committee consisting of Henry Weitzel, J. M. Chilcote, J. H. Spain, John Hazelwood and F. O. Peck.

A. O. U. W. Organizers.

The organizing board of the A. O. U. W. met at Hamilton last Monday and resolved that the organizers employed throughout the state shall be kept at the county seats hereafter. There are 46 out of the 88 counties in Ohio that have no lodges of this order and an effort will be made to place lodges. Hereafter A. O. U. W. assessment notices will be published in the Keystone Workman.

WAS IN THE STORM.

Mr. Julius Heyn, of the firm of L. Franc & Co., accompanied by his family, has just returned from a few months' tour in Europe. They returned on the steamer City of Paris last week, and experienced part of that terrific storm which played such havoc on the Atlantic. The Paris was delayed about 16 hours, and several sailors were injured during the gale.

WILL DEMAND A BOND.

The Consolidated Street Railway company will apply in common pleas court to-morrow morning for a new and sufficient bond in the injunction case recently filed by the Toledo Electric Street Railway company, restraining the construction of a trolley wire in Summit street. The bond is signed by David Robison, jr., and David Robison & sons.

PRESIDENT OF THE POLISH ALLIANCE.

Mr. Frank Grygla, for 10 years president of the Polish National Alliance, is visiting Polish friends in this city. Mr. Grygla is a prominent contractor of Minneapolis, and has for years been employed as a government expert of building. There are two branches of the National Alliance in Toledo, and the membership throughout the country numbers about 60,000.

ADAMS TOWNSHIP ALIVE.

A goodly number of people assembled at the town hall in Adams township last night to listen to addresses on the issues of the day by Mr. L. G. Richardson and Mr. C. T. Johnson. Another meeting will be held next Tuesday night at the same place, when Mr. Byron F. Ritchie will make the principal speech, and those who know Byron are aware that it will be worth hearing. Other good democrats will also talk. Adams township democrats are pushing the work of organization, and it would not be a bad idea if the party in other townships made similar moves.

PLEASANT SURPRISE.

The members of Toledo tent No. 8, Knights of Maccabees, were most agreeably surprised by their lady friends interested in the order, at their hall corner Oak and Fassett streets, while holding a regular review last evening. The ladies come in full force, each one carrying a well-filled basket of the necessaries of life. The supper was a complete surprise, but the gentlemen proved themselves equal to the occasion and soon made the ladies feel at home and arranged for a good time. The members return thanks to the ladies, and wish that they may live to enjoy many such occasions.

LATE FADS AT THE JEWELERS.

Among the poular presents for weddings are desert sets in silver. An entirely new shape in the desert sets is a minature pumpkin.

Novel shapes in smoking sets make a fine present for the gentleman friend who smokes.

New and novel designs in cuff-buttons are on the market.

A fad prevailing among the swells at the present time is an immense silver heart; the larger the more fashionable.

The fashionable ear-ring of the day is a single setting containing a diamond or colored stone and worn quite close to the ear.

The opera-glasses will be very small and dainty.

Collar and cuff boxes in silver are popular with the gentlemen.

APPOINTED CAR INSPECTOR.

P. J. O'Brien, of Toledo, who recently took a vacation from his duties as flagman on Wabash passenger trains No. 43 and 42, and made a trip to Ireland, returned some time ago. While visiting his friends and acquaintances in the places he went to in Ireland he distributed a large number of circulars of information about the great Wabash system and convinced a good many persons of its excellence. When he returned home he received a message summoning him to this city to appear before the superintendent. He came down yesterday morning in great haste and waited until he could see Superintendent Gould, wondering all the time what was going to happen. He hadn't the least idea what he was called for but knew he hadn't done anything wrong and so felt secure. He received the greatest surprise of his lifetime when Mr. Gould informed him he had been appointed traveling car inspector for the entire system. This is a first-class office which requires a bright person to handle and the managers knew what they were doing when they selected P. J. O'B.—Peru (Ind.) Sentinel.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB.

Upper Sandusky, Oct. 14.—(Special)—A democratic club has been organized in Jackson township by Organizer Foster with the following officers: President, D. W. Zimmerman; vice president, Edward Von Blon; secretary, P. A. McDaniel; treasurer, Geo. Hancs; solicitors, John Parsell, David Zimmerman, W. L. Baker, Chas. Deitz, W. Z. Baker, Edward Dean and Peter McDaniel.

WILL INCREASE THE STOCK.

New York, Oct. 14.—George Pullman, who controls the stock of the Pullman Palace Car company, has decided that at the annual meeting of the company to-morrow the stock shall be increased from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Hon. W. C. Gear, of Upper Sandusky, was in Toledo last evening.

Mrs. C. A. Rood, Master Cecil and daughter Ruth, of Toledo, are visiting at Bucyrus.

Mr. Otto Engwerson, the well known tenor of Cleveland, is here under the tuition of Sims Reeves.—New York Herald's London Dispatch.

Mrs. J. H. Waring, of Trumansburg, N. Y., Miss Minnie Chapman, of South Bend, Ind., and Nellie Welton, of Jonesville, Mich., are visiting Mrs. M. C. Smith, 2207 Detroit avenue.

The reception which was to have been tendered Frank Smith and wife Friday evening by the Railroad Ladies' Aid society will not be given, owing to Mr. Smith being obliged to leave the city suddenly.

Mrs. Seney received word yesterday that the judge, who is with friends on the eastern sea coast, is not quite so well. It is hoped and believed it is a temporary relapse, and he may speedily regain the ground towards recovery.

Misses Julia and Minnie Hallenbeck, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Hallenbeck, on Oakwood evenue, return to their home in Utica, N. Y., to-morrow, accompanied by Miss Katie Hallenbeck, who will remain some time for rest and a visit.

IN TRADING CIRCLES

Both at Our Home and Abroad.

Wheat Quotations for the Day—Price Current for Produce and Other Articles.

London wheat market strong, supply good, turn dearer. Liverpool wheat steady at 1-2 pence advance. Corn firm, shade higher.

The receipts of wheat at seven principal western points to-day are 1,269,315 bu., compared with 600,089 bu. on the same day last year.

The stocks of grain in private elevators at Chicago are reported at 979,000 bu wheat, 26,800 bu corn, 661,000 bu oats, 173,000 bu rye, and 178,000 bu barley.

The receipts of wheat to-day at seven principal western points are 669,226 bus. in excess of the corresponding Wednesday in 1890.

The export clearance yesterday at four Atlantic ports were 259,068 bus. of wheat and flour to an aggregate of 350,000 bus. Exports of corn were 99,969 bus.

English markets as reported herein are firm and in some positions higher. Corn a shade better.

Western Wheat Stocks.

Oct. 12th Chicago had in store but 399,815 bus. of No. 2 Winter wheat. No. 2 spring, 1,139,227 bus. Aggregate contract grade, 1,539,000 bus. The aggregate wheat in store, 3,415,014 bus., showing a preponderance of lower grades of 1,975,972 bus. over the quantity of No. 2. At corresponding date last year which 887,461 bus. was No. 2. Last the stock of wheat was 4,708,000 bus. Toledo had 1,518,455 bus. of wheat of which 887,461 bus was No. 2. Last year the stock was 1,259 bu. Detroit had in store 709,000 bu. Last year 286,000 bu. Duluth had less stock than Toledo. The aggregate stocks of wheat at all northwestern points was 1,154,000 bu. less than last year. This is the condition of wheat stocks in the west after a movement from farmers' hands unprecedented in our history. And yet the average dealer turns pale every day when the movement is larger than usual. The east and the lakes and canal have the wheat, and that is right, if we desire to supply the European demand for wheat during the winter. Money invested in good wheat at the seaboard looks like a profit to us. The railways are not expected to move wheat, corn, oats, rye and provisions, with all other products, to the seaboard in the winter, at a low freight.

Liverpool Quotations.

The Liverpool quotations of yesterday's market there make no mention of American Red winter. California wheats are quoted for all months to March, and India for October and November. The reason probably is that the system of future trading does not yet include our grades of wheat, but should they not?

Bradstreet's report of the visible, makes wheat increased 2,148,000 bus, corn decreased 2,237,000 bus., oats decreased 887,000 bus. On the Pacific coast wheat increased 1,823,000 bus. The aggregate increase of wheat on both coasts is 4,271,000 bus., which seems quite lively.

When the average dealer reached his office this morning and looked over his mail his conclusion was that the advance of the last day or two would be renewed to-day. But alas for the weakness of human scrutiny into wheat markets, they have worked perversely—have been weak and lower—and withall dull.

Corn has also lost its grip and has badly broken off.

In New York October and December wheat closed 1c lower; October and November corn 1c lower.

In Chicago December wheat closed 1 1-4c lower; October corn 2c lower; November corn 1c lower.

In Toledo we have had rather more activity in the wheat market, with less decline than in other markets. Prices have worked down very slowly and close 1-2c on May and 3-4c on December lower than yesterday. On the call December wheat sold at $1 02 3-4 and May at $1 09. After the call December sold at $1 02 3-4 and closed at $1 01 7-8. May sold at $1 08 3-4 and closed at $1 08 1-8.

Cash wheat was firm, but the demand was not large. Prices are 3-4c lower at the close. No. 2 soft sold at $1.00 to 99 1-2c closing at 99 3-4c. No. 3 soft at 97c to 96 1-2c. No. 4 soft at 92c Rejected No. 1 at 89c. No. 2 at 83 to 82c and white at 80c. No. 2 white at 97c. No. 2 hard at 97c. No. 3 hard at 91 1-2c.

Corn—No. 2 about 56c. No. 2 for May at 42 3-4c. Oats—No. 2 about 29c. Rye was steady. No. 2 at 88c. Oct., 88c. Nov. at 89c. No. 3 at 86c. Rejected, 79c.

Clover Seed was 5c to 10c better and more active. On the call Dec. sold at $4.57 1-2. After the call, prime for cash and Oct., $4.55 to $4.60. Dec. at $4.65. January at $4.65 to $4.67 1-2 to $4.70. No. 2 at $4.00 to $4.35.

Markets by Telegraph.

London, Oct. 14.—1 p. m.—Wheat cargoes off coast at opening firm; maize nothing offering. Wheat and maize cargoes on passage and for shipment, turn dearer.

Mark Lane.—Wheat at opening strong, supply good; maize steady. No. 1 California wheat just shipped or promptly to be shipped, 44s 9d; No. 1 California wheat nearly due 44s 9d. English country markets steady. Weather stormy.

Liverpool, Oct. 14.—1 p. m.—Wheat market steady, holders offer moderately. American mixed corn firm, 5s 9d. Winter wheat, No. 2 to No. 1, 8s 4 1-2d@8s 5 1-2d. Wheat and corn off coast demand poor.

Detroit, Oct. 14.—Close—Wheat—No. 2 red cash, 99 1-4c bid; December, $1.01 7-8; May, $1.08 1-2 asked; No. 1 white cash, 96 1-2c bid. Corn—No. 2 cash, 58 1-2c. Oats—No. 2 cash, 29c.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Opening: Wheat—Dec. $100 1-8, May $1.06. Corn—Nov. 50 1-4c, May 42 5-8c. Oats—Nov. 28c, May 31 3-8c. Pork—Dec. $8.60, Jan. $11.60. Lard—Dec. $6.40, Jan. $6.50. Ribs—Nov. $6.12 1-2, Dec. $6.07 1-2, Jan. $6.02 1-2.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Close: Wheat—December, 98 1-2; May, 104 5-8. Corn—November, 50 3-8; May, 42 1-4. Oats—November, 28 1-8; May, 31 1-4. Pork—December, $8 72 1-2; January, $11 60. Lard—November, $6 37 1-2; December, $6 40; January, $6 50. Ribs—November, $6 10; December, $6 02 1-2; January, $6 02 1-2; May, $6 30.

New York, Oct. 14.—Cotton quiet; middlig uplands, 8 5-8c. Futures steady; October, $8 17; November, $8 37; December, $8 55. Flour fairly active and steady; Minnesota extra, $3 85@5 65; city mill extra, $5 25@5 35 for West Indies; superfine, $3 30@4 00; fine, $3 00@3 65. Wheat opened firm at 1-4c advance, but subsequently weakened and declined 1-2c. At noon the market was barely steady; No. 2 red winter cash, $1 07; October, $1 06 1-2; November, $1 07 1-8; December, $1 08 7-8. Corn opened 1-8c higher, subsequently lost the advance and declined 1-8c. At noon the market was steady; No. 2 mixed cash, 64c; November, 62 5-8c; December, 55c. Oats dull but steady; No. 2 mixed cash, 34 1-2c; October, 34 1-8c; November, 34 1-4c. Rye and barley neglected. Molasses steady; New Orleans fair, 21@24c. Sugar, refined, firm and fairly active; cutloaf and crushed, 5 1-8c; powdered, 4 5-8c; granulated, 4 1-2c. Coffee quiet; fair rio, 16c. Rice nominal. Pork dull; new mess, $11 50@11 75. Lard fuiet; December, $6 73; January, $$6 85.

VIRGINIA REPUBLICANS,

They Go Back on Senator Mahone.

An Attempt Made to Keep Up the Organization—Broad Hints at Corruption.

Washington, Oct. 14.—A meeting of the campaign committee of 100, appointed by the recent Roanoke republican convention, was held here yesterday, and an address was issued to Virginia republicans in which they are urged to keep up the party cause and not to maintain an inoffensive attitude as advised by General Mahone, chairman of the state committee, who is criticised by inference. The address is concluded with the following suggestive paragraph:

"As it has been announced as one reason for abandoning the campaign that the republican party of the nation refuses to furnish any further financial aid, it may be well for us to inquire if we have not provoked this refusal by the fact that of all the tens of thousands sent here during the last eight years, not one account has been rendered, not one voucher filed, or an auditing committee commissioned; and to emphasize the prudence of the present movement we wait your action, with the confident belief that the motto 'mountaineers are always free' will not be appropriate alone by our brethren beyond the crest of the Alleghenies."

The address announces that the Roanoke Herald, the first daily republican paper started in the state for seven years, will be the party organ.

LEEDS ACCEPTS.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 14.—The well known railroad arbitrator, Mr. J. S. Leeds, has accepted the position of head of the new traffic association being formed by California merchants. He will also act as meditator between the railroads and the merchants and will receive a salary of $10,000 a year.

DELEGATES TO ROME.

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—The Pan Republic congress committee at its two days sessions here, designated Edward Everett Hale, D. D., and William O. McDowell as delegates to the meeting of the International Peace league soon to be held at Rome, Italy.

MRS. THURMAN'S ILLNESS.

Columbus, O., Oct. 14.—In consequence of the serious illness of Mrs. Thurman, the Thurman club has decided not to give a banquet to the Old Roman on November 13, as had been contemplated.

Mrs. Thurman's condition is now such that her death is momentarily expected.

KILLED HIS YOUNG WIFE.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 14.—Laura Gilardi, aged 18, was shot and killed in Patterson park last night by her husband, Sisto Gilardi. Gilardi also shot himself, but the wounds are no tserious. He refuses to give a reason for his crime.

FOUR BISHOPS ELECTED.

Indianapolis, Oct. 14.—The German Evangelical conference elected four bishops. The successful four were Bishop Esher, Bishop Bowman, Rev. S. C. Breyfogle, of Reading, Pa., and Rev. Wm. Horn, of Cleveland, O.

Party factions and the Australian ballot system are what worry the republicans in Ohio this year.

The Australian system of voting works democratically well in Indiana. Likewise it will help the democrats in Ohio.

The good people of Holland are to be afflicted with five statesmanic talks on Saturday. Griffin, Flickinger, Heller, McConica and Rorick constitute the afflictive aggregation.

It is gravely affirmed that Morton will not accept a renomination. Morton—Morton—oh, yes, he was elected vice-president on the ticket with Harrison, and runs a saloon in Washington.

Senator John Sherman is in Toledo today fixing his ice house for winter. Incidentally he will speak in Memorial hall to-night. He is the brainiest republican in Ohio, and as great a leader as his party has in the whole country. It is singular that any republican in Toledo should prefer Foraker to Sherman.

Indianapolis had the most exciting municipal election yesterday that the hoosier capital has enjoyed for many years. The republicans, assisted by a few disaffected democrats, tried very hard to defeat Mayor Sullivan for re-election. The Sentinel and News made a gallant fight for the mayor and good government and the democrats scored a splendid victory.

Hon. John Seitz, the candidate of the People's Party for governor, has not met with flattering receptions in his canvass, though he has remained on the stump until sickness has compelled him to retire. Although a strong opponent of the democratic party, his followers will very largely vote for the democratic candidate for governor.

The republicans will not make a nomination for senator against Hon. W. C. Gear, of Wyandot, the democratic candidate. The alliance candidate is Robert McCammon, also of Wyandot. Like his illustrious friend and living patron saint, Brother Brigham, it is charged that McCammon played with the Bohemian oats racket. If so the farmers ought to cut him right and left.

The probable reason the seven hundred Ohio clerks in Washington refuse to drop their pennies in the slot for the state campaign fund is because they believe 'twould only be a dead loss to them, for their party will be beaten at the polls. Their attitude is exasperating to Secretary Foster, who supposed he had only to pull the string to set them all dancing to campaign music. The bolters have the law on their side, which signifies nothing particular with official law-breakers against them.

Since McKinley saw his break about Canadian wheat in Buffalo markets in print, he is glad to see it treated by reporters as a joke, the first one he ever perpetrated. An examination of records shows that three bushels of Canadian wheat were brought into Buffalo the year before the McKinley bill was passed. Now that leak has been stopped the border country is safe from inundation, and Mr. McKinley is furnished an opportunity to say something unconsciously funny.

Down go the wages of the iron workers. Carnegie & Co. have ordered a wholesale reduction in their large Pittsburg mills, and thousands of dollars will be taken from the men whom McKinley says his law was passed to help. The consumer of iron pays the tax, Carnegie pockets it, the men suffer. This is another object lesson. Carnegie & Co. can now take some of the money thus taken from the daily toilers to help McKinley grease his campaign. Thus do these high taxers plot and work to accomplish their purposes. Thus does the McKinley monstrosity get in its work.

A London dispatch to a New York paper tells a wonderful story of the newly discovered sapphire and ruby mines of Montana, situated on the right bank of the Missouri river, about twelve miles north of Helena. A gem expert gives it as his opinion to the prospective buyers in London of 4,000 acres of this precious stone gravel, that there is nothing in the world like it excepting only the South African diamond fields. Dukes and marquises, lords and earls are among the founders of the company. Only $2,250,-000 is wanted by the company to buy the gravel and other small expenses of development. The advice of cautious men would be, look out for a "salt mine."

Theories are valueless when practical illustrations are at hand. When the high taxers, with Clerk McKinley in the chair, framed their law at the beck and bid of monopolists the promise was made and the purpose avowed that the law was to advance prices on products (in the interest of labor) and shut out foreign made goods. Jay Gould caught the spirit of the thing when he said "the man who had two coats last year must be content to do with one this year." and McKinley confessed it himself when he calculated in a speech in the last canvass that the advance in the price of tin and wool and crockery to each consumer would be so trifling it would not be felt, and should be cheerfully suffered for the good of the country. Now all is changed; the volume of foreign goods has increased and these same political teachers are exulting over the fact; and they are also proclaiming up and down the land that prices are lower to the consumer instead of higher. If these things are true, where is "protection" to the producer? If the price of his goods rules downward and foreign wares come in as never before, where is the benefit in the law for him? These high taxers have gone wild trying to harmonize their theories with actual everyday contradictions of them.

Now comes Consul Mason with his report, from Frankfort, Germany. He calculates that it must take on a partisan hue "at such a time as this," so he reports that under the protective system in Germany exports have grown within the last decade 10.5 per cent; but is obliged to add, softly, imports have increased 42.9 per cent. He calls the German system "radical and far-reaching." Its highest duties are on breadstuffs, and there is virtually no duty on raw materials and a slight duty for revenue only on manufactures. The total customs' revenue of Germany amounts to $60,000,000 a year, more or less, about one-fourth the sum collected in the United States. The only duties Germany calls protective are those levied on agricultural products to try and stimulate that industry. It is stimulated by legislation precisely as it is in this country; a good year brings good crops and a bad year bad crops. In one case they may sell, in the other they must buy. And this year is one of disaster in the grain fields, and the people are clamoring for a removal of the tax on bread grains.

It is proper, no doubt, under this administration for Consul Mason to attempt to contribute his mite to the high-taxers' campaign literature. His interest in the matter is easily understood, but he makes a poor mess of it quoting Germany for example.

IRON ORE INFORMATION.

Census bulletin number 113 gives statistics of iron ore produced in the United States. The entire yield for the year 1889 amounted to 14,518,041 tons, valued at $33,351,978, an average of $2.30 per ton. The total product reported at the Tenth Census was 7,120,362 tons valued at $23,156,957. Of the twenty-six states and two territories producing iron ore in 1889 the four leading ones are as follows: Michigan, 5,856,169 tons; Alabama, 1,570,319 tons; Pennsylvania, 1,560,234 tons, and New York, 1,247,-537 tons, aggregating 10,234,259 tons, or 70.49 per cent. of the total product.

The ore is mined in several of the states by a single corporation. Special Agent Birkinbine reports that the figures for Pennsylvania are not positive because of the refusal of one large producer to supply figures. Who was the one producer and what was his reason for refusal, are not stated. Ohio occupies the eleventh place in ore producing states, (but contributes more than one-half the output of carbonate ores, found chiefly in two contiguous districts in the central and southern portion of the state.) Michigan has advanced from second to first place since the census of 1880.

The total amount of ore imported in 1889, is 853,573 tons, from thirteen European countries, in order as follows: Spain, Cuba, French Africa, Italy, England, Greece, etc., Germany, last on the list is credited with one ton. There is only about 20,000 tons difference in the amount of ore mined in this country and in England. The average wages per ton for production in the whole country is $1.06, varying from 91 cents in Texas and 75 cents in Pennsylvania to $1.22 in Utah and $2.48 in Colorado.

From this showing it would seem that the 75 cents per ton tariff tax (with additional half-cent per pound if for the copper contained therein and no deduction made on account of moisture) has very little to do with fixing the wages of employes. And it would also seem with many years of fostering till the United States leads the world and the import is reduced to a few hundred thousand tons, and trusts are formed in the leading producing states, and the corporations are the riches of their kind in the world, that further protection by tax was unnecessary. It is simply a concession to these rich corporations, that they may regulate prices for home consumption independent of the markets outside.

A paragraph under the head of labor and wages, in the census bulletin quoted, states that the 709 boys under 16 years of age employed, receive an average of 62 cents per day. And 111 boys working underground receive 82 cents a day. The total value of the iron-ore mines of the United States, December, 1889, was $109,766,199. For the great value of the business and the protection still granted this giant industry, the wage ratio is exceedingly small. The aggregate wages of "laborers" includes contractors' profits and the pay of foremen, so there is no chance to compare the delvers' profits with those of employer and contractor. This lumping of accounts was purely accidental, of course, and, no doubt, the average wage per day includes the figures which stand for the salaries of contractors and foremen. The bulletin is instructive in the conclusions it draws and in those left for the student to form for himself.

Study Makes Democrats.

There are not many people being caught by the old cries about free trade, Cobden club, dishonest dollars, etc. The little baby rattles with which the adolescent members of the republican party have been wont to tickle themselves do not stir much commotion. When the young commence to study for themselves they become democrats.—The Massillonian.

Candidate Rorick's Pedigree.

John C. Rorick, the republican candidate for state senator, is a "money shark," who never earned a dollar in his life, but has made his money by shaving notes and loaning money on mortgages on farms. He would not be a friend of the farmer in the legislature. — Findlay Courier.

He Is Too Much Pressed.

And still Mr. McKinley neglects to mention any of the workingmen who have had their wages increased because of McKinleyism.—Dayton Times.

ON HIS FOURTH WEEK.

Governor Campbell Still Hard at Work.

Enthusiastic Meeting Held Yesterday at Lima.

The Wage Question and the Tariff—How the Protected Industries Scheme to Cut Down the Workman's Hire.

Lima, Oct. 14.—Gov. Campbell started in yesterday on the fourth week of his remarkable campaign and is in better condition than at the very beginning.

The governor is in excellent spirits, too, and every place he goes he infuses new life and enthusiasm. Yesterday morning, at Marion, he tackled a nickel-in-the-slot machine, ascertaining that during the past three weeks of the campaign his weight has increased over four pounds.

The first meeting yesterday was at Spencerville, one of the democratic strongholds of Allen county. At Lima the governor's party was joined by Hon. Walter Richie, Representative Cunningham, Judge Yoder, Hon. George Hull, John K. Brice and other distinguished democrats.

The meeting at Spencerville was held in a beautiful grove adjacent to the town, and the farmers and their wives to the number of 5,000 had gathered to greet the democratic standard bearer.

At the station he was met by a large delegation headed by a band, and as the governor stepped from the train he found the path to his carriage guarded on either side with scores of bright and pretty misses who wore attractive Campbell badges and carried appropriate banners. They were all possessed of good strong lungs, too, and as the governor passed through the lines to his carriage he was royally cheered.

When the governor's party reached the grove Congressman Layton was speaking. He immediately gave way and when the people caught sight of the governor on the platform they set up a round of applause which lasted some minutes.

There was not much time to be wasted, as the governor was compelled to drive 13 miles across the country to meet his appointment, and it was after 3 o'clock when he reached Spencerville. He began his speech by congratulating the people on the handsome turnout and complimented and thanked the young ladies who met him at the station and formed part of the escort to the grove.

The governor took up the tariff and farm mortgage questions and for an hour and a half held the closest attention of his audience, not a single person leaving the floor of the meeting. He was in good voice and his witty but powerful dissection of the McKinley law drew forth round after round of applause.

On the farm mortgage question the governor was equally as happy as effective. For the past four days Major McKinley and the republican newspapers here have been trying to convince the Ohio farmers that there is no depreciation in the values of their lands, but that the state board of equalization simply cut down the appraisement in order to decrease their taxes. The governor showed the absurdity of this claim and asked if there were farmers in Allen county who would prefer to pay a low tax on land that it did not pay to cultivate than a higher tax on land that yielded a fair living profit. Major McKinley's claim for the tariff, that it was a blessing to the American farmer and kept out the wheat of the Canadian farmers, was fully exposed by the governor and when the time came for him to take his departure the farmers were loth to have him leave, following him to his carriage with cries of "You are all right, Jimmy, and we are going to keep you just where you are."

The meeting at Lima last night was held at Music hall and long before the hour for opening had arrived the spacious building was crowded to its utmost capacity. The governor was escorted from his club by the Brice club.

Up to yesterday the republican state committee had a stenographer present at all of Gov Campbell's meetings. He took the governor's speeches in full and each day they were written out and forwarded to Major McKinley.

It was expected by the republican managers that they would be able to catch the governor in some of his statements of the issues but the plan did not prove a success and they called off the stenographer.

Gov. Campbell's remarkable versatility in presenting the issues of the campaign has dumfounded the republican managers. They recognize the fact that his entertaining manner makes him a much better drawing card than Major McKinley and they are now looking forward to the coming of ex-Speaker Reed and ex-Senator Ingalls in the hope that they will impart some enthusiasm to their campaign.

Last evening's meeting was treated to a surprise by the appearance of a McKinley on the platform. It was not the tin plate nominee for governor, but Mr. A. J. McKinley of New York, who occupied the attention of the audience until the arrival of Gov. Campbell with an interesting tariff reform speech.

Gov. Campbell was applauded to the echo when he entered the hall and when Chairman Ritchie introduced him it was some minutes before the applause had subsided sufficiently to admit of his being heard.

Before Gov. Campbell began his speech the Ada democratic glee club entertained the audience with a song on McKinley tin. The governor opened his speech by an illusion to Major McKinley's flying tin establishments. He described the different establishments named by the major and kept the audience in a constant roar. He produced a letter from the proprietor of the Piqua (tin) factory to one of his customers, in which he stated that in the future his establishment would use foreign tin in their terne plate.

He also showed by the claims of the McKinleyites that, even should the tin clause of the McKinley law furnish employment to 20,000 American workmen, the total amount so paid to the laborer would not equal the tin tax imposed on the people by the new tariff law.

The governor then made an extended comparison between the wages in protected and unprotected industries. "The goods you protected workingmen produce," said the governor, "are enhanced in value by reason of the increased duty, but bone and muscle comes in at Castle Garden without the least hindrance."

On the lumber question the governor showed that Gen. Alger's trees and lumber were all protected, but the American laborers, who cut down the trees and handle the lumber, are compelled to compete with Canadian labor. He then showed how the protection McKinley's law afforded the manufacturers of iron and steel enable them to cut down the wages of employes and crush out labor organizations, the object of which is to protect the workingmen.

"They don't call it cutting down wages now," said the governor, "it is now termed 're-adjusting wages.' I am going to East Liverpool in a few days to make an explanation which some of the pottery manufacturers think is due them. In my Sidney speech I charged that they had reduced the wages of their employes. They immediately produced affidavits to show that they did not reduce wages. They explained that instead of reducing wages they simply increased the size of the plates and other pieces so that a man who formerly made $2 a day now makes $1.50 a day. That was the difference and the highly protected manufacturers of East Liverpool actually made affidavit to this."

The governor also attacked the glass trust and showed how it operated against the laborers employed. He closed with an appeal to his audience to go to the polls on the 3d of November and vote to correct these evils.

After the meeting he held an impromptu reception which was taken advantage of by a large number of laborers who took the governor by the hand.

PLACED UNDER ARREST.

Major Throckmorton in Serious Trouble.

He Is Charged With Issuing Worthless Checks and Duplicating his Pay Vouchers.

New York, Oct. 14.—Major Charles B. Throckmorton, U. S. A., commandant at Fort Schuyler, was placed under arrest yesterday morning and relieved of his command, pending investigation of charges of issuing worthless checks and duplicating his pay vouchers.

The order of arrest was issued by Major General Howard, acting under instructions from Washington.

The charges have been preferred by Inspector General Hughes and Paymaster-in-Chief Smith, of the department of the east. Major Calef assumed command of the post.

Major Throckmorton will remain under arrest until General Schofield has made an inquiry and decided whether there will be a court-martial.

Major Throckmorton claims the charges are due entirely to personal animosity and are the outcome of an unfriendliness of long standing with a brother officer. He says he is anxious for the fullest investigation of his whole conduct and is confident that he will be proven innocent.

WITH COLORS FLYING.

Newark, N. J., Democrats Come in Winners.

With Two Tickets in the Field Against Him Mayor Haynes Was Re-elected for the Fifth Term.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 14.—Newark's charter election yesterday resulted in a victory for the democratic party. Joseph E. Haynes was re-elected mayor for a fifth term by 500 plurality over ex-Congressman Herman Lehlbach, republican, and Tyler Parmly, independent. Two years ago Mayor Haynes received 1,202 plurality in the city.

The democratic loss, therefore, was about 700. Mr. Parmly, the independent candidate, received about 400 votes in the entire city. Most of his followers voted for the republican nominee.

The democrats gained three aldermen and lost three, and the common council next year will be a tie. The republicans gained three members of the board of education, and that body will also be a tie.

JUDGE MILLS' CHANCES.

Judge Mills' natural majority in this district of about eleven hundred, bids fair to be increased by a large personal following, but more particularly by the opportunity of his opponent. This last condition is a strong one to base probabilities on. It is discernable in this county, though not to such an extent as in other parts of the district. Kelly laid the steel to Wildman's vitals when he was running for circuit judge. This will be remembered by Wildman's friends and the knife is being put in whet here. In Sandusky city, Kelly is charged with being too closely connected with the business of a firm of lawyers there who do not gauge the highest point of popularity, and who, 'tis said, laid the pruning hook to the budding hopes of Lawyer Curran, a would-be candidate. In Ottawa county Kelly is getting badly mixed in the county seat fight, being an "east ender" for all that he is worth, and working the issue with Luckey against the interests of the west end.

Judge Mills has a neat, clean record as a judge to back him. He has made a splendid record during his short time on the bench, has none of the taint of aristocracy about him that kills off any sympathy and common feeling with common people. He has surprised friends and enemies alike by his impartial rulings, his splendid knowledge of law and procedure, and his uniform courtesy. He will not only poll his full party vote, but an unpartisan vote will fall to him, which, in Lucas county, will be in the nature of a surprise. His election is only a question of majority.—Norwalk Experiment News.

STREET CAR RUNNERS.

An Unusual Sight at the Union Depot.

Since the Robison Street Railway company has had its line in operation past the Union depot and thus put themselves in direct competition with the Consolidated for the business from the station there have been lively times at that point. Each company has stationed an agent, or runner, there to look out for this business, and they have been most arduous in looking after the interests of their respective companies. It is an unusual sight to see street railway companies soliciting patronage by runners, but it is done in a lively and exciting manner at the Union depot. Both runners have good lungs, and in their efforts to get business they lay the festive cabman, who have so long held that prerogative, far in the shade.

No one is allowed to cross the street at this point without being pounced upon by these fellows, and in their eagerness and persistency the interests of the passenger are sometimes made to suffer. It is not an unusual thing to see a man or woman grabbed by each arm by the two men, and then follows a tug of war with the victim in the middle. Sometimes one man gets the passenger and the other gets the grip or baggage.

This has become such a nuisance and annoyance that the railway companies and people have set up a howl against it, and on Monday night Mr. Neuendorf introduced on the board of councilmen an ordinance prohibiting runners of any kind from soliciting business on the streets. Of course the street railway companies will make objections to it before the committee, where it has been referred and before the board, if it is ever approved by the committee. It will be interesting to watch the progress of this ordinance.

It is estimated that no fewer than 70,000 girls are employed in the public houses and drinking bars of the United Kingdom.

AS WITH ONE VOICE

Sandusky County Democrats Shout for Victory.

Every Indication Points to Success This Fall.

The Bee Makes a Tour Through the County and Finds Nothing But the Most Encouraging Reports.

Fremont, Oct. 14.—(Special)—Inquiry here develops the fact that there is less political excitement manifest than in other northwestern Ohio counties.

Although the campaign is well along, no big political meetings have been held, and an unusually small amount of interest prevails.

Sandusky county is democratic from 600 to 800, and there are no indications that it will be lessened this year, but if anything increased.

Democrats have nominated a very strong county ticket. Aldrich, the candidate for representative, is a young school teacher residing at Greensburg, a man absolutely minus all damaging political complications, and there is perfect harmony over his candidacy.

The remainder of the ticket is equally strong. Ex-Senator Zimmerman is the nominee for probate judge, and although there was some opposition to him in the convention, it has now disappeared. Gov. Campbell's action in deferring his appointment of a successor to the lamented Judge Dickinson, until the convention had named a man is regarded as most wise, and his naming of Zimmerman after it was manifested that he was the choice of the convention and of the democrats of Sandusky county, was entirely satisfactory.

Hon. H. L. Stewart, the democratic nominee for senator in this, the Thirtieth district, will secure the full vote of his party in this county. He is making an energetic canvass and will beat Van Horn, his republican opponent, by a safe majority.

It has been heralded far and near by republican papers throughout the district, that Hon. Grayson Mills, the democratic nominee for common pleas judge, would not receive his party vote, and that many democratic attorneys would refuse to vote for him, for various reasons. The Sandusky Register has been persistent in these allegations, which so far, at least, as Sandusky county is concerned, are absolutely and unquestionably false. The democratic members of the Sandusky county bar are a unit for Judge Mills and the only sentiment existing in regard to him, is a very favorable one. All unite in saying that he has made a splendid jurist and has been a fitting successor to Judge DeWitt. He will be elected despite the efforts of republican wind-jammers.

Sandusky county republicans are not as harmonious as they might be since their county convention. That convention was manipulated very largely by Tom McSheehy, the Irish republican orator, and there is considerable dissatisfaction over the result. This will have no effect, however, on the result in the county, as republicans have no chance to elect a single one of their candidates. None but democrats will be placed on guard this year.

Congressman W. E. Haynes is resting quietly at his home here and will not go to Washington before the middle of November. He is very sanguine as to the results of the coming election, and predicts a grand democratic victory.

"The tariff in this country on imported articles is entirely too high," said he, "and while you cannot class me as an extremist, there is no doubt that the existing schedules ought to be materially reduced. People are becoming tired of having hundreds of dollars filched out of them year after year by the present system, and are complaining loudly. The most of these complaints I think, come from the farmer who is rapidly awaking to the fact that the tariff is not only a tax, but that it is most unjustly levied, so that most of the burden falls upon the agriculturist and wage earners of the country."

"Colonel, what legislation, if any, in the direction of a reduction of tariff taxes, will be attempted by the coming session of congress?"

"I am unable to say just what will be attempted, and do not think anybody can tell what will actually be done. Probably nothing. While the democrats stand pledged to a reduction of taxation to a point somewhere near the needs of the government, economically administered, any bill they may pass in the house towards this end will be compelled to run the gauntlet of a republican senate, which will undoubtedly be an insurmountable barrier to the enactment of any such legislation. It is barely possible, however, that enough votes may be obtained in the senate to pass a bill of this kind. It may be that republican senators from the western states will refuse to vote with their party on this question."

"Who will be the speaker of the new congress?"

"Well, the fight appears to be narrowed down to the three men, Mills, Crisp and Springer. Mills is a splendidly informed man and well qualified to preside over the lower house. Springer has many of the qualifications necessary for the place and is as well informed a man as the country contains. On the whole, however, I am rather inclined to the belief that Crisp is the most available candidate. He is a splendid parliamentarian and has a large following throughout the south. One thing against Springer is the location. We must look to the north for a presidential and vice-presidential candidate, and were a speaker to also be selected from this section it would appear as if we did not wish to give the south anything. This point is, I think, a strong one in favor of the selection of a southern man."

"What can you say about Sandusky county politics?"

"Gov. Campbell will have, I think, at least 800 majority in the county. I fear that on account of the new ballot law the vote will be lighter this year than usual, and that fact, if it is true, will not affect democrats more than republicans. I find many voters of both parties who do not understand the new law, and will stay away from the polls, for fear they will make some error. Democrats are harmonious, and there is but one sentiment, and that is, the majority must be increased."

Several other prominent democrats were interviewed, with the following result:

Hon. George Kinney: "Sandusky county will give a democratic majority this year of at least 800. The boys are united and harmonious. The county ticket is very strong and will be elected in its entirety. From what I can learn the sentiment in regard to Stewart, the candidate for senator, and Judge Mills, is very favorable, and both of these gentlemen will get republican votes in the county. Leading republicans are expressing disgust at the manner in which their late county convention was conducted, and the ticket they named has no elements of strength which will especially commend it to the people. Gov. Campbell will likely get more than his party vote and in my judgment will be elected. Democrats are more enthusiastic than they have been for years."

Hon. B. F. Dudrow: "Everything down this way presages a triumphant victory for democracy this year. The masses of the people will not longer endorse so pernicious and distasteful a system of taxation as ours, and the time has come when this Moloch must be overthrown. The farmers are posting themselves and I look for a repetition of last fall's tidal wave. The voters in Sandusky county may be bothered somewhat by the new election law, but that may be overcome. Our county, senatorial and judicial tickets could not be stronger, and I have great faith in their election."

Hon. James Hunt: "The woods are full of democrats this year all over the state, and Sandusky county will not be behind the procession. Gov. Campbell is very strong with the people and will carry this county by an increased majority.

Judge Mills? He stands very high with our bar and the only place I can think of where he may be cut immaterially is in the township wherein Kelley's father-in-law resides. He may induce a few of his democratic neighbors to vote for his son-in-law, but I even doubt that. Mills is popular, has made a good judge, and will be elected."

Bert S. Garver: "There is nothing the matter with the democrats of Sandusky county this year. We are united and harmonious and hope to increase our majority. Campbell is strong with our people and the opinion here is that he has McKinley on the run."

Frank O'Farrell: "Sandusky county will go democratic by the usual majority and we will elect our senatorial, judicial and county tickets. Tariff reform is a winning issue and grows stronger with the people year after year."

The people's party will not cut much of a figure in the race in Sandusky county. In the summer it developed considerable strength, but within the last couple of months it has been on the wane. When Senator Peffer spoke here in August he had a fair audience, but it is thought that he could not attract a hundred to hear him now.

The alliance is holding aloof and there is no telling where its vote will go. There is every indication, however, that it will not be cast in favor of the cause of higher taxation. Farmers have much more now than they can carry.

SPORTING.

An effort will be made to revive base ball in this city next year.

Sunol made a record of 2:10 against a high wind at Stockton yesterday.

If it is a good day next Tuesday, Sunol, Palo Alto, Stamboul, Arion and Bell Bird will go against their records at Stockton.

The Hustlers challenge the Auburndales for a game of ball on Sunday, October 18, for any amount. Answer through the Bee. O. Pecord, manager Hustlers.

Chicago's new association ball club, it is claimed, will have Pfeffer, Gumbert, Ryan, Kittridge, Richardson, O'Connor and Hart on its pay roll.

There will be a meeting of the Auburndale base ball club Friday evening at the Milburn hotel parlors. All members are requested to attend; business of importance.

The report that Right Fielder Tommy McCarthy has signed to play with the Boston team next year, is denied by Edward Von der Ahe, who says that McCarthy last Sunday signed a contract to play with the St. Louis team next year.

The Hustlers is composed of the following players: P. Bolan, catcher; J. Judge, pitcher; O. Pecord, first base; J. Degnan, second base; T. Russell, third base; C. Wyle, shortstop; B. Smith, center fielder; D. Robinson, left field; O. McCree, right fielder.

Mr. Doble, the trainer of Nancy Hanks, said to a reporter: "The mare took cold at Richmond, Ind., week before last and commenced coughing. At Terra Haute, where I trotted her against time last week, I noticed the effect of her cold, which seemed to be bronchial. In order that the public may not be disappointed, I have substituted in her place the stallion Delmarch, whose race record is the same as hers. He holds the fastest race record of any stallion in the world, and his public performance against time of 2:11 1-2, equals that of Nelson's over the same track. The race as now arranged, Allerton and Delmarch will, in my opinion, be a better contest and more satisfactory to the public than the other would have been."

KNOCKED FROM HIS TRAIN.

Lima, Oct. 14.—George Sheets, a brakeman on the eastbound local freight train on the Lake Erie & Western road, met with a fatal accident just as his train was pulling out of town. At the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton crossing the targetman's shanty stands close to the track, and as Sheets was standing on the rear platform of the caboose, leaning out, his head struck the building and he was knocked from the train with terrific force. His skull was shockingly crushed and he was picked up dead.

WENT UNDER THE WHEELS.

Massillon, Oct. 14.—A distressing accident occurred to George Bayliss, the 21-year old son of City Clerk E. B. Bayliss last night.

He attempted to get on a moving eastbound freight train on the Ft. Wayne road, missed his hold, was thrown under the wheels and had both legs cut off. It is believed that on account of his robust health the injury will not result fatally.

BLEW THE TOP OF HER HEAD OFF.

Zanesville, Oct. 14.—Miss Lizzie Massey, 35 years old, of Deerfield, Morgan county, committed suicide yesterday by blowing the top of her head off with a shotgun. She was of unsound mind.

It cost $250,000 to bury Grand Duchess Paul of Russia.

A Mere Boy Compels the Mother of His Sweetheart to Consent to Marriage at the Pistol's Point.

Dublin, Ga., Oct. 14.—John Hester, aged 14, brother of the daring Miss Hattie Hester, whose exploits have frequently appeared in print, has been paying attention to Miss Alice Cobb, aged 12.

She lives near Dublin and is a dashing and buxom country lassie. This courtship progressed smoothly until Sunday, when young Hester demanded of the girl's mother that she consent to his marrying her daughter at once.

She stubbornly refused and ordered him out of the house. He left swearing vengeance.

Monday night he made his appearance again in a semi-intoxicated condition, intending, as he said, to take the girl if he had to whip a whole army. Mrs. Cobb was busy preparing supper when he entered the kitchen brandishing a huge pistol.

Frantic with fright she endeavored to flee, but the way was barred by Hester, who stood at the entrance with the pistol pointed at her breast.

Seeing that her life was in his hands she consented to the marriage. A minister was sent for and in half an hour the young couple were man and wife.

DOWN AT THE HEEL.

Is the Fifth Ward Republican Club—Election Last Night.

After a big struggle and much drumming the Fifth ward Republican club managed to get an alleged quorum together last night, and held a meeting with President Pro Tem Beard in the chair. This great meeting consisted of nine members of the club and a number of boys who dropped in out of the cold and looked on. After the new ballot had been explained to those present in kindergarten style an election of officers was held which resulted in Jonathan Beard being chosen president, G. F. Hoffman, vice president; Amos S. Trout, secretary, and Louis Nunn, treasurer.

The forlorn situation was discussed in a rather disheartening way, and it was announced that a big meeting would be held in Eversman's hall some day.

SCALDED WHILE WASHING.

Lima, Oct. 14.—Mrs. E. M. Stompaugh was horribly burned with scalding water. She was engaged in washing and in the act of removing a wash boiler containing several gallons of boiling water from the stove, when one of the handles broke and the contents were spilled on her and covered her entire body. She was burned in a horrible manner and her recovery is very doubtful.

Angier's Petroleum Emulsion WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES

Dr. M. C. BISSELL, Limestone, N. Y., says: "I find, in wasting diseases, a gain of flesh and strength, and a generally improved condition follows the use of Angier's Petroleum Emulsion. In both incipient and advanced stages of consumption, as in all other Throat and Lung Diseases, I depend upon it to accomplish all that anything can. I have used it with best results in treating Chronic Bronchitis and Pneumonia."

It is far superior to Cod Liver Oil, and totally unlike all other Emulsions. It is doing really more than could be expected of a medicine.

AN AUTUMN VIOLET.

I lingered down a shaded way,
Where summer late had doffed her gown,
And through the bright autumnal day
The chill winds scattered leaves of brown.

A little blush tinged Autumn's cheek,
A glint of gold gleamed in her hair;
She piled the leaves up in the creek—
Last spring a stream flowed swiftly there.

The very voice of Spring's forgot,
And Summer's garnered with her sheaves;
But faithful, in a wooded spot,
Blue violets bloomed 'neath withered leaves.

You are to some extent a costly being from the time you open your eyes until you close them "on the last scene of all," death. It costs something to live and a good deal to die; in fact, everything costs. Some one estimates that getting born costs the people of the United States 250 million dollars annually; getting married, 300 million, and getting buried, 75 million.

Some one who has looked up the history of steel in United States says: The first piece of steel manufactured in this country of which there is any record was made by Samuel Highley of Simsbury, Conn., in June, 1725. All sounds, whether high or low, loud or soft, travel at precisely the same rate, i. e., about 1,100 feet a second. Were this not so, the different notes of music would reach the ears at different times, and the result would be confusion instead of melody. If the sun gave forth sounds loud enough to reach the earth, such sounds, instead of reaching us in the space of about eight minutes as light does, would only arrive after a period of nearly 14 years.

The cosmopolitan character of the capital of France may be inferred from the following: The recent census of Paris shows that the city contains 4,507 residents of the United States. There are 44,817 Belgians, 26,863 Germans, 24,800 Swiss, 21,123 Italians, 12,727 English and Irish and 9,000 Russians. It is calculated that there are 100,000 French citizens in the United States, 26,000 in England and only 2,000 in Germany.

Charles Tilton of the life saving service, who was 10 years in making the collection. Every particular domino has a history, and Capt. Bills likes nothing better than a chance to relate it.

Frank E. McGurrin of Salt Lake City claims the championship as the fastest typewriter in the world. He does not glance at the keyboard while reading copy. He covers the board with his hands, and uses the finger movement instead of the wrist movement. His record is 124 1-2 words a minute.

Wonders in the last few years have been so many and so astounding that it is difficult any more to create a "ripple of surprise" by any new venture in any line. FIRST DAY'S SESSION

Of the Ohio W. C. T. U. Convention.

Reports of Officers—The President's Address—Business Transacted—Sketches of Some Eminent Leaders.

The eighteenth annual session of the Ohio W. C. T. U. was called to order by President Henrietta L. Monroe in the First Congregational church shortly after 9 o'clock this morning.

Devotional exercises were led by Miss Lillian Battel, and the opening prayer was offered by the state treasurer, Miss Emma Goodwill.

The Executive Board

The report of the executive committee on the sessions held yesterday was read, and a motion was made and seconded that the report be received and the action of the committee be indorsed. The following recommendations were adopted without opposition:

Appointment of police matron in all large cities.

Indorsement of the Ohio W. C. T. U. petition for school suffrage.

That Mrs. H. E. Hammond take charge of the thank offering service in the absence of Mrs. Trego.

That one pupil be sent by the Ohio W. C. T. U. to the Chicago training school, this pupil to be selected by the state central committee.

On the recommendation of the committee that all delegates to this convention be seated, but that hereafter no delegates be received except from counties whose unions have paid taxes to their district, as the constitution requires, a lively debate was held.

The opposition was led by Mrs. Leiter of Mansfield, who offered a substitute motion that representation in this convention shall depend upon the strict observance of the constitution.

The discussion was participated in by Mrs. Estelle J. Purdum, Chillicothe; Mrs. H. E. Hammond, Cleveland; Mother Stewart of Springfield, Mrs. Samuel Bartlette of East Toledo, and others.

The feeling prevailed that it was undesirable to refuse a seat to any delegates present, but that care should be taken to see that the law was complied with hereafter.

On motion the substitute offered by Mrs. Leiter was tabled, and the motion adopting the recommendation of the executive board was carried, thus indorsing all the work of the committee yesterday.

The committee will meet daily during the convention.

It is likely a motion will be made during the session to amend the constitution at the next convention—one year's notice being necessary—to do away with the district organization.

President Monroe's Address.

The address of President Monroe was a verbal one, the usual written report having been made impossible by the "shadow of death that had rested upon the home" where the president awaited the death of the dearly-beloved daughter, buried one week ago to-day.

The aged president referred in moving terms to the loss she had sustained, and with the faith of the Christian who cries, "Though He slay me, yet will I trust in Him," she recited the texts of love and consolation which sustained her. Love was the keynote of Mrs. Monroe's address, love to God and love to one another.

No fraternal delegates being present, the convention then proceeded with its regular business, the president calling for a member from each district for the committee on plan of work and committee on resolutions.

State Organizers' Reports.

Mrs. H. E. Hammond, of Cleveland, read the report of the state organizers. The following is a summary of the work done:

Mrs. S. M. Perkins, Cleveland, 3 W. C. T. U. and 1 Y. W. C. T. U. and 2 Loyal Legions organized.

Mrs. S. A. Strother, Findlay, 4 W. C. T. U. and 1 Y. W. C. T. U.

Miss C. S. Burnett, Hartford, has given 43 lectures, held 25 day meetings, addressed 10 schools; organized 5 unions.

Mrs. Helen S. Burns, Nelsonfille, reorganized one district, delivered 15 addresses, held one district convention, organized 4 unions.

Mrs. H. E. Hammond 56 lectures, assisted in 14 conventions, organized 11 unions, addressed 4 Epworth leagues, organized 2 Y. W. C. T. U. Having the district, including the city of Cleveland, with 1,943 saloons, Mrs. Hammond has had a busy year.

Serving the Lunches.

In the basement of the church lunches are served at the noon hour, free to delegates, the tables seating 198 at one time. The lunches are in charge of Mrs. Jane Beatty, of 1206 Huron street, and her aides are volunteers from each of the Lucas county unions. These aides to-day were Mesdames Callard, Hamilton, Stevens, Davis, Bobst, Nill, Ormond, Jones, Tate, Snead and Williamson.

The Afternoon Session.

The principal business of the afternoon session was the report of the corresponding secretary and of the editor of the Messenger. The thank-offering service was conducted by Mrs. Hammond, and some of the department superintendents also reported.

The Toledo Delegates.

The basis of representation in the convention is one delegate for every 30 members or a fraction thereof. The delegates from the ten W. C. T. unions of Lucas county is as follows:

First—Mrs. C. R. Dickinson, Mrs. Vincent Hamilton.

Central—Mrs. Louise Eck.

Lucy Webb Hayes—Mrs. Harriet Johnson.

Woodbridge—Mrs. Affie Graheas, Mrs. J. W. Callard.

Willard—Mrs. Frances J. Sumner, Mrs. B. K. Ormond.

East Side—Mrs. H. Hurd.

Leavitt—Mrs. George Candee.

Lincoln—Miss F. M. Frederick.

Ross—Mrs. Susan C. Ross.

Auburndale—Mrs. Laura N. Fralick.

Y Delegates—Misses Tracy, Stewart, Thurstin, Bond; alternates, Mrs. Dr. Barber, Mrs. Ellery Eaton, Misses Caine and Hunter.

An Important Change.

Those intending to attend the evening sessions will bear in mind that an important change has been made. The Y evening will be Friday evening, and Rev Anna H. Shaw will deliver the Thursday evening address. All the program previously announced for Thursday evening, the Y's program, will be given on Friday evening. The Christian Endeavor societies, which have received special invitation from the Ys will now understand the invitations are for the Friday night meeting.

Miss Frances H. Ensign, who will deliver the address for the Ys, is one of the young and earnest workers who are doing so much to popularize the temperance work. She is a graduate of Oberlin college and has been a teacher in the high school there, later a teacher of Latin at Warren. Her success as a worker in the Y. T. S. C. E. drew her into the Y work and led her to decline several offers of positions as teacher in high schools. Her addresses for the Ys in the past few months have been everywhere received with great favor, and Toledo people will listen to her with pleasure Friday evening. "Paid in Advance" will be her subject.

Committees.

President Monroe appointed the following committees:

Committee on credentials—Mrs. A. H. Clevenger, Wilmington; Miss Emma L. Goodwill, Canton, and Miss Charlotte Boyer, Ripley.

Committee on courtesies—Mrs. Frances J. Sumner, Toledo, with power to choose her assistants.

Committees to be appointed in convention are on resolutions, finance, plan of work, and a committee to nominate delegates to the national convention.

Notes.

The Y delegates held a noon session.

The beautifully embroidered banner of the Ys hangs from the pulpit.

The caterer fed 346 officers and delegates, besides the other people.

Toledo is in the lead, as usual. Its Y. W. C. T. U. is the largest in the state.

The devotional exercises of the afternoon were led by Mrs. Hannah W. Blackburn, of Zanesville.

The very beautiful decorations in the auditorium of the church reflect great credit on the Y committee.

The bureau of information is of great assistance, and Mrs. Josephine Marlett is its patient, question-answering executive.

Miss Jessie Foster and her staff of efficient assistants make post office officials that could pass any civil service examination.

Mrs. Perkins, of Cleveland, was aloweld 10 minutes to present the claims of "A True Republic," a suffrage paper of whish she is editor.

Mother Stewart made an earnest appeal for the organization of colored unions, which she said she was too old to do, but which must be done.

There is a splendid response by Toledo ladies to the request for more entertainers. Chairman Southard reports all delegates have been found places to-day.

The address this evening is delivered by Mrs. Nichols; to-morrow evening Rev. Annie H. Shaw speaks, and theY address on Friday evening, will be by Miss Frances H. Ensign.

The Toledo suffrage association will wait upon the convention through a committee asking the convention to take one favorable action on the petition for equal suffrage.

The World's convention will be held in Boston, Mass., November 13 to 18. The Ohio W. C. T. U. is entitled to 20 delegates, who will be elected at this convention.

Mrs. Eliza J. Grey, of Medina, who has charge of the department of "Temperance Literature," has a full display of books and papers in the basement of the church.

Mrs. Trego, of Delaware, superintendent of evangelistic department, is kept at home by the illness of her husband. Her place on the program will be filled by the president.

The membership of the unions in Ohio was 8,600 last year and this year is not less than 10,000. Of this membership 2,500 are in the Ys, the remainder in the Ws. There are 600 unions, in round numbers, 85 of which are Ys.

Over 400 delegates and officers reported to Mrs. Southland their intention to attend the convention. The entertainment committee secured places for about 350. If that numebr is exceeded, special rates have been secured at some private boarding houses.

The executive board will recommend that hereafter county organizations shall not be entitled to representation at state conventions unless they have paid their dues to the district to which they are attached, under the rules of the state constitution.

Mrs. Frances J. Barnes, of New York city, who was to have delivered the address on Y evening, has been prevented from coming and Mrs. Frances J. Ensign takes her place. Friday will be Y evening. Mrs. Barnes is entertaining Lady Henry Somerset, president of the British W. C. T. U., who will remain in the United States until after the world convention.

The souvenir spoons in Mrs Grey's department in the basement are attracting a good deal of attention, and in the present souvenir craze will find many buyers. The bowl of the spoon shows "the crusade church" at Hillsboro, in which "Mother Stewart" began her work. On the handle appears in relief work the head of Frances Willard, and the symbol of a globe encircled by the white ribbon.

MRS. HENRIETTA L. MONROE,

President of the Ohio state W. T. C. U., was born in Troy, O., in 1827, a daughter of Zachariah and Juliet (Neal) Monroe, her father a lawyer, her parents both of high culture and character. Mrs. Monroe is of Revolutionary stock, her great-grandfather a captain of a Virginia company in the Continental army. Another ancestor was Rev. Mr. Fairfield, an early patron of Oberlin college.

In 1848 she married James L. Monroe, a business man of Xenia, and their home is still in that city, where both are members of the United Presbyterian church. During the "Woman's Crusade" Mrs. Monroe was leader of a band, and similar work has engaged her most earnest attention and most conscientious efforts for many years. She was elected president of the Woman's Christian Union of Ohio in 1886, at the Canton convention, and has been its wise and conservative head ever since.

Mrs. Monroe comes to the convention under circumstances that will awaken general sympathy. Just one week ago to-day she buried a beloved and talented daughter, Dr. Juliette Monroe Thorpe, whose death was commented upon in the Bee of Saturday last. Dr. Thorpe was a graduate of the Xenia high school, of Vassar college and of a medical college of New York city. She practiced in New York city two years, then in Cincinnati until her fatal illness. She devoted herself not only to her profession, but to reform work wherever woman's help was needed. The Home for Friendless Girls and other like institutions received much of her time and care. Taken ill in June, she was conveyed to her parents' home in July, and there died of tubercolosis one week ago last Sunday.

Mrs. Monroe has sons, and one daughter survives, Miss Henrietta Barbara Monroe, of Xenia, who is superintendent of the "unfermented wine" department of the Ohio W. C. T. U. work, but is unable to attend the present convention.

MISS JESSICA A. MORGAN.

Recording secretary of the Ohio W. C. T. U., is also superintendent of the department of "young women's work," and to her more than to any other one person the organization and growth of the Ys in Ohio is due. Miss Morgan is of New England birth and training, and her family still reside at Natick, Mass. She has been a teacher, and came to Ohio some seven years since, making her home in Oberlin. Between five and six years ago she took up the work of organizing the young women for temperance work. There was at that time but one Y. W. C. T. U. in the state, the one at Oberlin, and now there are 85 of these unions, with a membership of about 2,500. During the past year Miss Morgan has delivered 75 public addresses in Ohio and elsewhere. She is one of the national organizers of the Ys, and during the year has established unions in Virginia, Michigan and the eastern states.

MISS EMMA L. GOODWILL,

State treasurer W. C. T. U., was a member of the I. O. G. T. for several years, a worker for seven years in the Murphy movement, and has been identified with the W. C. T. U. 12 years. She has been superintendent of juvenile work of Canton W. C. T. U. seven years, during which time not a Sabbath has passed without a meeting for the legion; quarterly meetings are held in the interest of the Peace department; monthly meetings for the Band of Mercy work, and weekly meetings for temperance. She is superintendent of the franchise department, and holds monthly meetings for the W. C. T. U. in the interest of Equal Rights for Women.

Miss Goodwill has been county president (Stark county) since 1882, and has the gratification of knowing that she may be ranked fourth in signatures of voters to the second amendment petitions. She has held 124 meetings and addressed 82 of them in the interest of that work, has been president of the Sixth district for three years, and organized Wayne and Holmes counties W. C. T. U., and supervised that district work.

The office of treasurer of state, W. C. T. U., Miss Goodwill has held one year. She has been at her desk from 9 a. m. till 10 p. m., with but few exceptions, three days of each week during the year, and one day of each week has been spent in collections and settlement of bills. She has written over 4,000 communications.

Miss Goodwill is a woman of strong convictions of duty, radical in opinions, positive in character; her life is devoted to the prohibition of the liquor traffic and development of womanhood. She is one who has heard the voice of God calling, and answered, "Here am I, send me."

SENATOR SHERMAN
WILL ADDRESS THE CITIZENS OF TOLEDO
WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 14,
AT MEMORIAL HALL.

MRS. JOSEPHINE NICHOLS,

President of the Indiana W. C. T. U., who delivers the address before the convention this evening, is one of those women who, an ornament to society and a benefit to their age, devote their talent and energy to temperance work as a cause noble in aim and of highest import. While a young girl in her home at Maysville, Ky., she was drawn to work for the world's uplifting by listening to that noble woman, Lucretia Mott. Public lectures are the special field of her temperance work, although she is an ardent advocate of woman suffrage, also. Her special department in W. C. T. U. work is "State and County Fairs," of which she has been superintendent since 1883. She conducted with signal success the W. C. T. U. department at the World's Fair in New Orleans, at the Paris Exposition, and the same work is in her hands for the Columbian exposition at Chicago in 1893. She was elected president of the Indiana W. C. T. U. in 1885.

MRS. ANTOINETTE H. CLEVENGER

Corresponding secretary Ohio W. C. T. U., and editor of its official organ, the Messenger, is the daughter of Judge R. B. Harlan, of Wilmington, O., and her husband is an attorney of that place. Mrs. Clevenger is a graduate of Vassar, and has been editor of the Messenger for more than five years. She was for eight years the superintendent of the flower mission department of the state work, and was elected to the office of corresponding secretary at the convention in Canton in 1886. In the discharge of the duties of this office for the year just ended Mrs. Clevenger has sent out 3,400 letters and 2,800 postal cards.

MRS. FANNY H. RASTELL,

Business manager of the World's and National Woman's Christian Temperance Union publishing house, at Chicago, Ill., is an English woman by birth. She was born in Leicestershire, England, in 1844, and came to America with her widowed mother and seven brothers and sisters in 1861. She learned typesetting against the wishes of her family and became an expert in that craft, which she followed until her marriage, in 1868, to Adjutant J. E. Rastell, who had served in the civil war with the First Maryland V. I. Both have been successful journalists ever since, and for many years Mrs. Rastell has been a quiet worker for temperance. In 1872 they made their home in Kansas, and in the W. C. T. U. in that state Mrs. Rastell has held many important offices. In 1884 when she became state president there were 35 unions in the state; in 1890 there were over 200. For six years Mrs. Rastell has been delegate to the National W. C. T. U., and the national organization recognizes her ability as a financier, economist and business woman in the important office they have chosen her to fill.

A BLOW AT THE STANDARD

The Earth in Its Fullness is Not Theirs.

A California Court Rules That Other People Have Rights That Must be Respected.

San Francisco, Oct. 14.—Judge Hawley, in the United States court, made a decision yesterday of great importance to the Pacific coast in the case of the Standard Oil company v the Southern Pacific company aul Whittier, Fuller & Co.

The latter firm had a contract with the Southern Pacific company to haul oil for them in certain kinds of cars.

The Standard Oil company claimed that this car was a patented invention which it controlled, and secured a temporary injunction, restraining the railroad compay from hauling Whittier, Fuller & Co.'s oil in such cars.

Whittier, Fuller & Co. asked leave to be made co-defendants with the Southern Pacific company and the case was reopened.

Judge Hawley has decided that the cars in question are not patented inventions and that anyone had a right to use them. Owing to the advantages of these cars the Standard Oil company had no competition on this coast unless other firms could use them as well.

UNION VETERAN UNION.

Fremont Entertaining the Old Soldiers.

A Pretty City, Gay With Bunting and Bands to Do Honor to Her Guests.

Fremont, O., Oct. 14.—(Special)—The entire city of Fremont is in holiday attire and presents a patriotic appearance to-day.

The stars and stripes float to the breeze on every hand.

All business houses and public buildings are gaily festooned with bunting of every description, while the national colors float from the majority of houses throughout the city.

The occasion of this demonstration is the fifth annual state encampment of the Ohio command, Union Veterans' Union.

The encampment commenced yesterday and will continue three days.

The greater part of the day was occupied in receiving the visiting delegations.

The Woman's Veteran Relief Union and the Union Veterans Loyal Guards are also holding their annual encampment at the same time.

The Union Veterans' Union headquarters are in the U. V. U. hall.

The Elks have donated the use of their hall to the ladies of the Woman's Veteran Relief Union and the Loyal Guards occupy headquarters in the Moore Post hall.

Hundreds of old veterans and their wives and ladies are in town, and every train brings in more to add to its numbers.

At 5 o'clock last evening a delegation of 200 strong arrived from Kenton, accompanied by the Kenton Juvenile band and drum corps. Akron also sent a large delegation.

Last evening an open camp fire was held in the Grand opera house. There were about 1,500 people in attendance.

The evening entertainment opened with music by the Kenton band, after which Col. Wm. E. Haynes introduced Mr. Bert S. Garver, who delivered the address of welcome.

AWARDING MORE CONTRACTS

For Piping the City—The Gas Trustees Hold a Star Chamber Session.

Last evening the natural gas trustees held a prolonged special star chamber session at which many matters pertaining to piping the city and the distribution of gas were discussed. The proposition of Kerlin Bros. to furnish and lay a certain number of miles of pipe was accepted, and the manager was instructed to draw up the necessary contract to be executed.

The proposition of McMahon & Coghlin was also accepted, and they will be given the laying of lines on certain streets which the department cannot construct.

Both bidders were over 20 per cent. less than the Parks, Foster & Co. contract, and the city would have saved considerable money had the bid been received earlier in the season.

Lines were ordered laid in following streets:

Noble, Walnut 300 feet.
Colburn, Broadway to Maumee avenue.
Mulberry, Ontario to Michigan.
Locust, Bancroft to Moore.
Crane Lane, Orange to Cherry.
Bartlett, Lawrence to Forest avenues.
Wakeman, Woodruff to Bancroft.
Washington, Groesbeck to Collingwood.
Vinton, Harrison to the canal.
Thirteenth, Oak 75 feet north.
Tenth, Jefferson 200 feet.
State Union to Canton.
Orchard, Bowman to Congress.
Ostrich Lane, Cherry to Locust.
Havre, South to Western avenue.
Mott avenue, East Broadway to Foundry street.
Nebraska avenue, Lenk 100 feet west.
Magnolia, Erie to Eagle Lane.
Hicks, Wells to Ewing.
Germania, Ewing to Miller.
French, Parker to Plymouth.
Floyd, Horton 250 feet.
Elm, Crane Lane to Ontario.
Moore, Locust to Elm.
Floyd, Fulton to Putnam.

The McMahon contract is for laying pipe furnished by the city and the Kerlin contract for furnishing and laying.

EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY.

Washington, Oct. 14.—The president has denied a pardon to Wm. Reimheimer, of Indiana, sentenced to two and one-half years in the penitentiary for counterfeiting.

In the case of Thomas E. McCann, of California, sentenced to two years in jail for violation of the postal laws, he has commuted the sentence to one year and eleven months.

FOUND BY HIS FRIENDS.

Fostoria, O., Oct. 14.—(Special)—Eli Snyder, the aged man for whom searching parties have been hunting since Friday, he having wandered away from home, was found Monday evening about 40 miles from here, between Whartensburg and Forest. He was found covered up in a straw stack. He recognized his sons. He is quite weak-minded and was glad to get home.

WAKE UP.

If you wake up in the morning with a bitter or bad taste in your mouth, Languor, Dull Headache, Despondency, Constipation, take Simmons Liver Regulator. It corrects the bilious stomach, sweetens the breath and cleanses the furred tongue. Children as well as adults sometimes eat something that does not digest well, producing Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Restlessness, or Sleeplessness—a good dose of Regulator will give relief. So perfectly harmless is this remedy that it can be taken by the youngest infant or the most delicate person without injury, no matter what the condition of the system may be. It can do no harm if it does no good, but its reputation for 40 years proves it never fails in doing good.

Manhood Restored. Small weak organs Enlarged, Free remedy. A victim of youthful errors causing Emissions, lack of vigor and development, Nervous Debility, Varicocele, etc., will gladly send (sealed) Free to all sufferers a recipe that cured him after all other remedies failed. Address with stamp, L. A. Bradley, Grocer, Battle Creek, Mich.

The Mormon Elders' Book on Sexual Strength, mailed free to married men, address F. B. Crouch, 20 Grand St., New York.

PICKED UP THE CREW.

London, Oct. 14.—A dispatch from Glasgow says that the steamer Norwegian, Capt. Christie, which arrived at that port yesterday from Montreal, brought with her the crew of the British steamer Devonshire, from Barrow September 30 for New York, which was abandoned 550 miles west of Tory island.

The antiquarians of antique Edinburg, Scotland, are aghast and angered at a piece of unwitting vandalism that will strike Americans as somewhat comic. Certain stains on the board floor and the wainscoating of a chamber in Hollyrood palace have been regarded for centuries as the remains of the life blood of David Rizzio, the favorite of Mary Queen of Scots, and have been shown as such to generations of visitors. Two weeks or so ago it was discovered that these stains had totally disappeared, and investigation showed that their removal was due to the use by industrious attendants of a certain brand of American soap which is warranted to clean everything, and with the power of which they were evidently not properly acquainted.

It may be that theatrical managers will solve the hat problem. Not a hat or bonnet was seen in any part of the audience that attended the Worcester, Mass., music festival. The managers of the festival made it a rule that no hats or bonnets shall be worn.

SCROFULOUS SORES

Lady Badly Afflicted Three Years Tries Many Doctors Here and in England Without Benefit. Cured by Cuticura.

My wife having suffered from scrofula sores on the back for three years, and at times she could not lie down at night, and she tried all the doctors I could get, and also went to England to try and be cured there, and all of them failed, and told her they could do nothing for her; and having tried all kinds of remedies I at last tried one box of your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and to-day she is as well as she ever was in her life, and her back is as clear as any person living, and I for one can recommend CUTICURA REMEDIES as the only one I could find to effect a cure. G. W. JONES, Constable, 25 Sayles Street, Cleveland, O.

INHERITED SCROFULA

My nose was of a most pronounced crimson hue, the result of inherited scrofula. I suffered untellable mortification daily, and tried enough remedies to stock a drug store without deriving the slightest benefit. I tried the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and the most flattering results followed their use. I am all right now and I cannot find encomiums enough to bestow upon what I know to be the greatest and grandest gifts given by science to man. Please accept the most sincere and grateful thanks of one who has suffered. C. STEVENS O'MAHONEY, No 300 E. 67th St., New York, N. Y.

PRISON REFORM.

The Congress Will Adjourn To-Night.

Officers Elected and General Business Transacted—The Next Meeting Place.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 14.—When the national prison congress opened Chairman Charles E. Felton of Chicago presented the report of the standing committee on police. The report, which was quite lengthy, in substance is as follows:

The leading superintendents of police are almost a unit in placing the chief detriments to police management, politics, licentiousness and gambling. Incidentally, if not primarily, the two leading vices which disturb public thought and are embarrassing in police management in several of our cities are licentiousness and gambling. These forces, especially the latter, are made a part of the unwritten platform of parties, and are utilized by candidates for office and officials more especially for pecuniary ends. Nearly every change of municipal administration causes a change of policy in regard to these offenses. As a result our large cities are falling into line with those in Europe in the magnitude of the social evil, and public gambling has not decreased. The number of fallen women has alarmingly increased in the past few years, the cause not being altogether of a political nature, but the result of lax administration of demoralizing social and industrial conditions, as followed by the authorities in treating the difficulty.

The committee believe the social evil can be suppressed in some communities, but not in running districts, and in cities where the population is heterogeneous and cosmopolitan. Public gambling is open to similar criticism, and cuts a more prominent figure in politics than the social evil, and ought to be suppressed, but for the collusion between gamblers and office-holders.

Crime is most prevalent where these vices are most encouraged, and it is increasing in this country beyond the public belief, and statistics are not sufficient to determine its extent.

In this country other causes covering the increase of crime are the ease with which political criminals avoid arrest, the lightness of sentence, lavity of discipline in prisons, the present senseless views of the public and the acts of legislatures as to systems of prison labor and its ease to the prisoner; the comfortable quarters and quality of food; their easy access of visitation, and the readiness with which a sympathetic public accepts as true the complaints of prisoners.

At the conclusion of the report it was announced that the following officers had been elected by the Wardens' association: President, Joseph Nicholson, with Vice-Presidents J. H. Patterson of New Jersey, James Massie of Ontario, R. S. Dawson of Alabama, E. S. Wright of Riverside penitentiary; secretary, R. W. McClaughney, Chicago; treasurer, John C. Whinton, Massachusetts.

It was also announced that the board of directors had selected Baltimore as the place of the next meeting in 1892, and Chicago for 1893.

Capt. J. W. Pope, of the United States army then read an interesting paper on "Crime and Criminals in the American Army," detailing the various classes of crime and their punishments.

A resolution that the world's fair managers be requested to ask the French government to have an exhibit of the Bertillon system of measurement as a means of identification of prisoners at the fair was adopted. The system was explained to the association by the wardens and is recommended for all purposes.

The delegates visited the workhouse at Claremont, where a dinner was served. In the evening another session was held, at which Mrs. Ellen C. Johnson, superintendent of the reformatory prison for women, Sherborn, Mass., read a paper on "Discipline in Female Prisons."

Mrs. Johnson said: "We aim to give each woman the mental and moral treatment best suited to repress evil tendencies; to arouse aspirations of a better life; to move her to practical repentance and to convince her that justice, and not revenge calls her to account for violated law. We bear in mind these things: First, that in the majority of cases circumstances make the criminal; second, that the purpose of punishment should be to operate upon the mental and moral nature of the criminal; third, that except in aggravated cases, such as we rarely encounter, the punishment which follows immediately upon the offense is seldom a wise one. If punishment is administered while a woman is still excited and defiant; while we ourselves are doubtless irritated and disturbed, possibly only partially acquainted with the case, we find ourselves in every instance the loser."

Mrs. Johnson then outlined in detail some of her methods, such as the use of flowers, the companionship of domestic animals, the sight of children in the nursery, good music in the chapel, etc., with the purpose of touching the hearts of the offenders and quickening the spark of divine nature in her. This done, the hardest part of the problem is solved. In conclusion, she said if time were allowed and suitable persons could be found for positions of responsibility, no woman would pass out of the doors without having at least the purpose to lead an upright life. The congress will adjourn tonight.

A GALE ACROSS THE DEEP.

Much Damage Done in England.

Vessels Wrecked and Shore Property Destroyed by the High Winds and Waves.

London, Oct. 14.—A great storm has flooded the lowlands of northern Wales, causing great damage. The wind was peculiarly savage at and about Tamworth. It overturned a number of tents on the race track at Fazeley, a mile or so from Tamworth, while the races were in progress. Many persons who had sought shelter in the tents were severely injured by the falling and flying debris.

The storm was specially severe along the English channel. The Downs is full of vessels, which anchored there for safety and shelter. At Hastings heavy seas have swept over the promenade, and the damage there and at other watering places along the eastern coast will be enormous. The premier, the marquis of Salisbury, who arrived from the continent during the middle of the storm, reports that the passage of the channel from Calias to Dover was decidedly the stormiest he ever experienced.

During the night of the storm, a Norwegian bark went ashore at Chesil bank off the coast of Dorsetshire. Her name could not be learned, but she went to pieces very soon. There was an exciting scene at the rescue of her crew, which was successfully accomplished by means of the rocket system. A French brig was stranded near Falmouth, where the force of the wind shattered her to pieces. No further details of her could be obtained.

A Norwegian vessel loaded with coal became a total wreck off Carney island. Several collisions occurred in the Thames, and many vessels were driven ashore.

The gale demolished Batty's circus, which was giving an exhibition at Birr, in Ireland. The tent was crowded with village school children. When the wind struck it a wild panic ensued, which was heightened by the adults shouting, "Cut the canvas." Many persons, mostly children, were injured by the falling poles.

The gale, which had sensibly abated by nightfall, resumed the force of a hurricane at midnight. The area of the storm extends over the whole of Ireland and England and the southern portion of Scotland. A large number of coasters have been lost.

The valleys of the Severn and the Dee, and the low lying parts of the midland counties are flooded. At Brighton the pier and the esplanade are swept by tremendous seas. The huge structure which was being prepared for Buffalo Bill's wild west show was thrown and utterly destroyed. At Swansea a number of buildings were seriously injured. At York the roof of a circus was blown off, killing a boy in the street. At Dublin the magnificent draperies displayed upon the occasion of the Parnell funeral have been entirely blown away, and the same is true of the floral decorations that have lined the grave of Glasnevin. At Cardiff and its vicinity, 11 coasting vessels are ashore. The crews in all cases were saved.

The big White Star liner Majestic, which arrived off Queenstown from New York to-day, was unable to debark her Irish bound passengers and the mails because of the tremendous sea, and she was compelled to proceed to Liverpool direct.

ELECTROCUTION LAW.

Its Constitutionality Still Questioned in the Courts.

Washington, Oct. 14.—The New York electrocution law which has been before the federal supreme court a number of times came before it again yesterday on a motion made by Attorney General Taber of New York to dismiss, affirm or advance the cases of Charles McElvaine and Nicolo Trezza, condemned murderers who are awaiting death by the electrical current.

Although the federal supreme court has decided the electrocution law to be constitutional, the two cases mentioned came before it on the main contention that it is unconstitutional.

Judge McComb of New York denied a writ of habeas corpus in the cases of the two men and from this decision an appeal was granted to the supreme court. George M. Curtis, counsel for McElvaine, opposed the granting of Mr. Taber's motion.

In his brief of the case filed in the supreme court Mr. Curtis bases his plea principally on the contention that the clause in the electrocution law prohibiting the publication of the details of an execution is a restraint of the liberty of the press granted by the constitution, and that therefore the law is unconstitutional. The court took Mr. Taber's motion under advisement.

WHISKY CAUSED HIS RUIN,

A Murder and Suicide at Holgate.

A Bad Boy Steals $200 From His Aunt and Kills Her for the Reproach He Received.

Lima, Oct. 14.—A shocking murder and suicide has been committed at Holgate, a small town north of this city, and in Henry county. The perpetrator of the crime was Roy Burke, a young man about eighteen years old. The victim of young Burke's rage was his aunt, Mrs. Frank Burke, with whom he lived, doing work about the house and at Mr. Burke's livery stable.

Young Burke was a wild and unruly boy and was in some kind of trouble all the time. Mrs. Burke took an interest in him, however, and had a great deal of confidence in him, so much so that she very frequently gave him money to take to the town bank and deposit.

Mrs. Burke was cashier for her husband and on last Friday intrusted Roy with over $200, but instead of going to the bank with it he boarded a train and went to Defiance, where he went on a drunk and finally wound up at Deshler, where he was found on Monday evening by his uncle, who, after taking what money he had left from him, persuaded him into accompanying him home.

When they arrived at Holgate young Burke had not yet fully recovered from the effects of his spree and was very quarrelsome. Mrs. Burke commenced to give young Burke some motherly advice, when he flew into a rage and left the house. Soon after he returned, armed with a revolver, and picking a quarrel with his aunt, drew the deadly weapon and shot her in the abdomen and forehead.

Either wound would have caused instant death. The entire neighborhood was aroused at the shooting and a large number hastened to the house, and upon hearing them approach young Burke placed the revolver at his own temple and blew his brains out.

CENTER-BOARD YACHTS.

The Herreshoff Has Built a Second "Peachy."

Providence, R. I., Oct. 14.—A very quiet launching occurred in Bristol recently. Only the men at the Herreshoff works had knowledge of it and it was not generally known until to-day. The new boat is named the Dilemma and is 25 feet on the water line and 39 feet over all. Like the Gloriana, she has considerable overhang. The yacht has a stationary iron centre-board with about two tons of lead on the bottom.

As the peculiar construction of the boat did not allow it to touch the floor of the shop it was hoisted in mid air, and when everything was ready the derricks were rolled along the iron tracks until the craft hung over the water. She was then lowered. Her 875 pounds of iron and two tons of lead sunk into the channel and the launching was over. She is a single sticker, without a bowsprit, and will carry only a mainsail and a jib. There is a roomy cockpit in the stern that will accommodate five persons. It is stated that the boat was built for Nat Herreshoff's own use, but it is probably an experimental model from which the new 46-footer may be patterned.

THE VANDERBILT YACHT.

The Interesting Case Has Reached the Supreme Court.

Washington, Oct. 14.—The case of Frederick Vanderbilt's yacht Conqueror, came before the United States supreme court on a motion by Solicitor General Taft yesterday for leave to file a writ of prohibition to prevent the district judge for the southern district of New York from proceeding further in the matter.

Mr. Taft stated that a conflict of authority had arisen between the United States marshal and the collector of the port of New York over the possession of the yacht.

Mr. Taft claimed that the New York court did not have jurisdiction over the matter and that the proper course to be pursued was for Mr. Vanderbilt to pay the duty assessed on the yacht as a manufacture of wood and iron and to then sue the government for the recovery of the amount paid. The court took the case under advisement.

Don't read! Don't think! Don't believe! Now, are you better? You women who think that patent medicines are a humbug, and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the biggest humbug of the whole (because it's best known of all)—does your lack-of-faith cure come?

It is very easy to "don't" in this world. Suspicion always comes more easily than confidence. But doubt—little faith—never made a sick woman well—and the "Favorite Prescription" has cured thousands of delicate, weak women, which makes us think that our "Prescription" is better than your "don't believe." We're both honest. Let us come together. You try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If it doesn't do as represented, you get your money again.

Little but active—are Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Best Liver Pills made; gentle, yet thorough. They regulate and invigorate the liver, stomach and bowels.

SUES FOR DIVORCE.

Wapakoneta, O., Oct. 14.—(Special)—In the common pleas court to-day Malinda Slife filed suit for divorce from her husband George on the charge of extreme cruelty. The parties were married in Jackson township, Hancock county, thirty years ago and have one child. He is a well-to-do farmer residing at St. Marys and owns considerable rich oil lands. The suit has caused considerable comment for idle gossipers because they have moved in the best of society. The case will be well contested and the best legal advisers have been secured.

Delight Followed by Torment.

What man or woman will deny that a good dinner is a present delight. Equally undeniable is it that when a well cooked meal is succeeded by a fit of indigestion, rapture is converted into torture. Don't charge your dyspepsia to your dinner. No, my dear sir, your gastric department was out of order to begin with. Had you regulated it with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the cargo that you took on board would have been comfortably stowed away without the slightest inconvenience. This incomparable stomachic entirely reforms faulty indigestion, and regulates, besides, the liver and the bowels, which must act harmoniously with the digestive organ, or all three fall out of gear. Take the Bitters for kidney and rheumatic complaints, and in all cases of malaria. As a tonic, appetizer and promoter of convalescence it has no peer.

THE THEATER.

Mantell to Give Toledoans a Great Treat.

One of the Bravest at the People's This Week—The City Directory Falls Flat.

"One of the Bravest," with Charles McCarthy as the hero, Larry Howard, is playing to big audiences at the people's this week. McCarthy, in the same play, proved a prime favorite last season, and he is increasing his friends this year. "One of the Bravest" is a realistic melodrama, somewhat sensational, but with a touch of nature that is sure to strike a responsive chord with the majority of the audience. Mr. McCarthy has both strengthened his company and his play this season, and is giving good satisfaction wherever he goes.

The City Directory.

Russell's comedians in "The City Directory" played to a big house at Wheeler's last evening, but the audience that witnessed the play was a disappointed one. The "City Directory" is a farce comedy of the farciest kind, but could be made very amusing and entertaining by a good company. The people who showed here, however, are a second class company of Mr. Russell's and their only ability seemed for a large amount of horse play. All the men could turn flip-flaps and the women could chatter like society girls, but they couldn't sing.

Mantell Friday and Saturday.

Toledo people will be given a treat this week with Robert Mantell who appears at Wheeler's Friday and Saturday. On Saturday afternoon a genuine novelty will be presented in a grand matinee when Mantell and company will appear in two new plays, the five-act drama, the Louisianian, and the one-act comedy drama entitled A Lesson in Acting.

Friday evening Mantell will make his first appearance in this city as Hamlet, and on Saturday evening Dumas' great play, the Corsican Brothers, will be presented.

Of Mr. Mantell's Hamlet the Troy Press says:

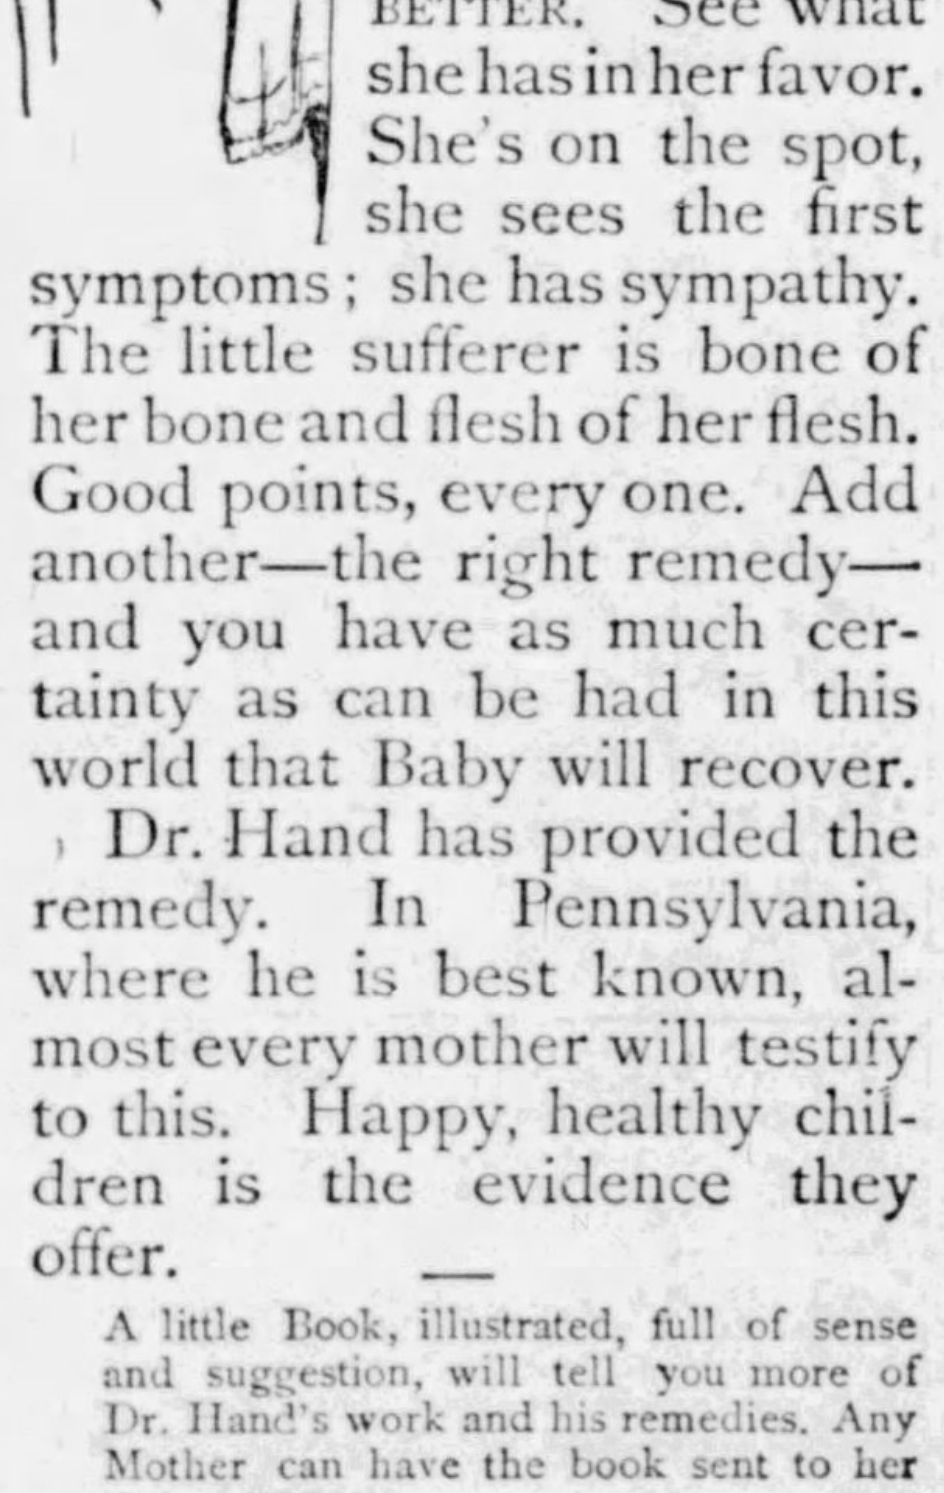
"Mantell is a marvel. He belongs on the boards, and adorns the arena of his activities. In Monbars he is majestic and masterful—a player of heroic mold measuring up to the requirements of a noble and grandly emotional character. But it was in that other and pre-eminent character of Hamlet that Mantell ambitiously entertained a crowded, critical and cultivated Trojan audience at Rand's opera house last night. In the interpretation of this difficult and dreamy Shakespearean creation—the acme of the actor's art—Mantell newly demonstrated the high quality and broad range of his dramatic powers. He boldly delineated a conception of the problematic Dane, which, while not obtrusively original, was certainly no servile pattern of the Hamlet of Forrest, of Booth, of Barrett, or of Irving, and it is not indulging in over-praise to say that Mantell's performance last night eloquently prophesied that he would at no distant day rank with this galaxy of luminaries in the theatrical firmament.

At the People's Next Week.

The Two Old Cronies will hold the boards at the People's next week and make plenty of fun with this bright musical comedy. Frank M. Wills, as the professor, one of the "Cronies," has been making a big hit and being favorably received everywhere. Some lively new music and songs are promised.

It Has a Plot.

One of the hits of the season, A High Roller, will be at Wheeler's opera house Monday night, and Toledo people will be treated to a first-class spectacular farce comedy, with a plot, something different from the performance last night. John D. Gilbert, one of the great trio in Natural Gas, is now with the High Roller.



A Good Doctor

MOTHER—NONE BETTER. See what she has in her favor. She's on the spot, she sees the first symptoms; she has sympathy. The little sufferer is bone of her bone and flesh of her flesh. Good points, every one. Add another—the right remedy—and you have as much certainty as can be had in this world that Baby will recover.

Dr. Hand has provided the remedy. In Pennsylvania, where he is best known, almost every mother will testify to this. Happy, healthy children is the evidence they offer.

A little Book, illustrated, full of sense and suggestion, will tell you more of Dr. Hand's work and his remedies. Any Mother can have the book sent to her free. Address

BOGUS LORD ON TRIAL.

A Clever Swindler Nearing the End of His Career.

An Interesting Trial Now Taking Place in Georgia.

He Gave Checks Freely, Made Love, Lived High, Paid for Nothing and Beat Everybody He Came Across.

Rome, Ga., Oct. 14.—There is on trial in this pretty little city one of the most accomplished confidence men, whose name is Lascelles. He assumed the name of Lord Beresford. A local paper tells the following facts as the opening chapter to a series of rascally tricks perpetrated upon those who received him in Rome with every courtesy that could be expected by one of so much distinction as he claimed:

In January last T. J. Maguire, president of the Corporate Sales Syndicate of New York, arrived here on a business visit. Among his friends here is the wealthy firm of Hamilton & Co., who also own the Etna Furnace. Mr. Maguire had received letters of introduction from friends in the English capital, requesting that Walter Beresford should be furnished with information with reference to southern investments. Mr Maguire came first to Rome to prepare for his lordship's coming, and desired that he might be treated royally as an English gentleman.

In due time came the wily Walter. In response to a telegram, Mr. Maguire met "his lordship" January 15, and proceeded with him to inspect the Etna furnace. Upon their return Beresford was duly introduced as a blue-blooded Briton of 16 quarterings, the son of "Lord William Beresford," a rich old Indian officer, who was about to be retired on an enormous pension.

Mr. "Walter S. Beresford" had also served beneath the "torrid suns of Inde," and was himself to be retired on a big pension. His present income was £10,000. He had an enormous amount of money. He wanted to invest where he could get good interest. This couldn't be had in England, don't you know. The south was really a wonderful country. He would invest heavily and immediately.

Beresford was handsomely entertained by the Hamiltons, and played his part well-up. Finally he came down to business. He liked the Etna furnace, and upon his return to New York would complete arrangements with his agents for the purchase. When ready to depart from Rome he appeared at the store of Hamilton & Co. and stated that he was ridiculously short of funds. He was careless about these things. He never carried much money about with him. Would they generously cash a small bit of paper for him. They did.

He wrote a draft for £200 on the Westminster bank, limited, London, the depository of the blue-blooded nobs of London. He also wrote a letter to his alleged father, Lord William Beresford. With many effusive good-byes he took his departure, ostensibly to look after valuable properties in Savannah.

He also carried with him a valuable diamond ring, the property of Miss Maude Allgood. The indictment states "he having requested Miss Maude Allgood to let him wear the diamond ring for two weeks as his mascot and 'bon voyage,' promising faithfully to return said ring at the expiration of the two weeks, which promise was falsely and fraudulently made." Incidentally it may be mentioned that Miss Allgood is one of the belles of Rome.

Inquiry of the British consul at Savannah developed the fact that Beresford was a fraud, that he had approached the consul for money to pay his hotel bill and claimed to have only $13 in all the wide world. After a bit the returns commenced coming in. "No funds" was reported with the returned dishonored draft. The letter written by the lord to his alleged father was returned, with innumerable postmarks, unopened.

Communication was opened up between Mr. Maguire and the Hamiltons, with a view to apprehending the wily scamp. Mr. Maguire saw his lordship in New York on more than one occasion, but was unable to capture him.

On July 5 Sheriff Moore, of Rome, received a telegram stating that Walter S. Beresford had been arrested in New York, charged with swindling, and asking him to come on with a warrant. When the sheriff arrived in New York he found his lordship considerably lionized; no less than ten requisitions were presented for him and everybody wanted him. The Police Gazette, having been tapped for $500, trapped his lordship. Although the best legal ability was exercised to prevent his being carried back to Rome, yet the eloquence of Col. John R. Fellows and Mr. W. Bourke Cochran was unavailing. A big crowd awaited his return at Rome. He was accompanied by his wife, a very attractive woman of graceful carriage and sweet voice, evidently a thoroughly refined lady. Having accompanied her to a hotel, the parting was very affecting, he himself seeming quite overcome.

Arriving at the jail, he was assigned to a cell, which he had made ready with some bedclothes which he had brought from New York, while he sat and smoked Havana cigarettes. He is described as a man of about 34 years of age, brown hair, blue eyes, and a prominent nose. While not handsome, he is certainly attractive looking. His carriage and manner are those of a gentleman. His language and well-modulated voice show him to be a man of education.

Mrs. Lascelle "Beresford" is said to be the daughter of a very rich lady, estimated to be worth seven millions and residing in a beautiful home at Belvoir-on-the-Hudson. Her maiden name was Maude Lilienthal. There is quite a chapter connected with his pursuit of her, the objections of the mother, and the wedding in a little Pennsylvania summer resort in the middle of the winter.

His operations seemed to have covered a very wide range in this country and Canada. It is said he committed a burglary in April, 1890, in Manchester, England, and stole $5,000 worth of diamonds and jewelry. The following letter, written by the city editor of the Journal, St. Thomas, Ontario, gives a brief sketch of a very large amount of rascality perpetrated by one of the shrewdest rascals:

St. Thomas, Ont., Sept. 23, 1891.

Editor Tribune: Sydney Lascelles, alias Beresford, taken back to Rome from New York for trial, spent six weeks in this city this summer. He did the society act, gave champagne suppers, sang at concerts and in church choirs, gave $25 each to a number of churches, tipped every one who did him a service. Before he left, however, he raised $1,000 from Mr. Lockwood, the manager of the bank, on a draft on the Oriental bank, London, England. The draft was returned "no funds." Lascelles, as he called himself here, went to Detroit and raised $200 on a bogus check from Mr. Maxwell, a hotel keeper. He was a regular society swell and lion here, known to every one, and therefore anything about him is of great interest.

I write to ask you to do me the great favor of sending copies of your paper containing any reference to Lascelles, his trial or sentence. Anything I can do for or anything about him from here that would be of interest will be cheerfully done. Any expense or charges for papers sent will be forwarded on receipt of account. You will greatly oblige, if you will kindly not let this slip your memory. Respectfully yours,

JOHN THOMPSON.

The trial of Lascelles-Beresford is now pending in the courts. He is defended by quite an array of most distinguished lawyers at the bar. It is more than probable he will be convicted, and if so the public will be relieved from the dangers of his charms for at least a term of years. If he gets in a southern prison it is not likely that he will see the outside for many a long year.

LOCAL LABOR NEWS.

The Tailors' Strike Practically Settled—Meetings Last Evening.

Over one-half of the striking tailors, pursuant to an agreement reached yesterday afternoon, returned to work this morning, and the balance will probably be at work to-morrow. The revised schedule of prices have been accepted by a number of the leading firms, and while none have signed the agreement, all agree to pay the wages asked.

John B. Lennon, general secretary of the Journeymen Tailors' National convention, has been in the city for the past few days, and he favors a settlement. There seems to be an impression that the strike was premature and ill-advised. About 50 of the strikers still remain out and will remain out until the schedule list has been agreed to.

At the meeting of the Barbers' union last evening six shops sought and were granted admission, and they will hereafter display the union card. New members are being taken in at every meeting, and the union is evidently on the boom.

Painters' union, No. 7, held a short session last evening. The committee on the recent dance reported the affair very much of a success.

The clerks held an interesting meeting at Elks' hall last evening, and decided to continue the crusade against stores which remain open after 6:30 p. m. The names of merchants failing to comply will be printed and circulated among the various labor organizations of the city.

The K. of L. and the machinists are both making strenuous efforts to have their dances on the 11th and 12th successful.

The Iron Machine Hands and Screwmakers' union held a meeting and perfected their recently formed union by electing a full staff of officers and obligating the same.

This evening at Walbridge hall Joan of Arc assembly gives the first card party and dance of the season. The social is strictly invitational.

FIXING UP THE FARMERS.

Rain Experiments Have Been a Failure

And Now Storm Signals are to be Sprung.

Uncle Jerry Does Not Want the Bucholic Mind to Forget That He Is Still Doing Business at the Old Stand.

Washington, Oct. 14.—One of the first discoveries made by Secretary Rusk after he took charge of the weather of this country was discrimination against his friends, the farmers. He found that, while city people were getting government forecasts regularly in their morning newspapers and by means of flags in the big railroad stations, their country cousins obtained no information until the weather had come and gone.

This distribution of federal tips seemed unfair to Secretary Rusk. He had been in New York, and never had to order a cab, a street car or an elevated train a day ahead of the day when it was going to rain. He had been a farmer also and he knew the extreme difficulty of deciding in the morning after eating his pie whether it would be safe to put the mower on the "medder patch" or wiser to set the boys to work oiling the harnesses under cover. Moreover some farmers in Nebraska and some more on Long Island had just resolved that he would make a first-rate candidate for president.

Having duly considered these phases of the situation, the secretary sent for Prof. Harrington, chief of the weather bureau, and told him to figure out a scheme to give the country as much and as valuable information as the city receives.

Prof. Harrington began work at once and thinks he has solved the problem. So apparently does Secretary Rusk, for an official circular has just been issued announcing that the bureau wishes to find in every town and village a responsible person who will undertake to display weather flags. When these persons are employed the forecasts will be telegraphed to them, and the people will know what kind of weather to expect.

The flags are to be made of tin, and their size, shape and color, with the code of signals, will be as follows:

No. 1.—White flag, six feet square, will indicate clear or fair weather.

No. 2.—Blue flag, six feet square, will indicate rain and snow.

No. 3.—White and blue flag, six feet square, will indicate that local rains or showers will occur and that the rainfall will not be general.

No. 4.—Black triangular flag, four feet at the base and six feet long, always refers to temperature. When placed above flags Nos. 1, 2 and 3, it will indicate warmer weather. When placed below the numbers it will indicate colder weather.

When it is not displayed the indications are that the temperature will remain stationary, or that the change in temperature will not vary more than 4 degrees from the temperature of the same hour of the preceding day from March to October, inclusive, and not more than 6 degrees for the remaining months of the year.

No. 5.—White flag, six feet square, with black square in center, will indicate the approach of a sudden and decided fall in the temperature.

This signal will not be displayed unless it is expected that the temperature will fall to 42 degrees, or lower, and will be ordered displayed at least 24 hours in advance of the cold wave. When No. 5 is displayed, No. 4 is always omitted.

When displayed on poles the signals will be arranged to read downward; when displayed on horizontal supports a small streamer will be attached to indicate the point from which the signals are to be read.

Interpretation of Displays.

No. 1, alone. Fair weather, stationary temperature.

No. 2, alone. Rain or snow, stationary temperature.

No. 3, alone. Local rain, stationary temperature.

No. 1 with No. 4 above it. Fair weather, warmer.

No. 1 with No. 4 below it. Fair weather, colder.

No. 2 with No. 4 above it. Warmer weather, rain or snow.

No. 2 with No. 4 below it. Colder weather, rain or snow.

No. 3 with No. 4 above it. Warmer weather, local rains.

No. 3 with No. 4 below it. Colder weather, local rains. N

No. 1 with No. 5 above it. Fair weather, cold wave.

No. 2 with No. 5 above it. Wet weather, cold wave.

Prof. Harrington will also make arrangements to have the flags displayed on railroad cars. The starting points of the trains on all the railroads will be supplied every morning with the forecast, and one man on each train will be assigned to the duty of displaying the flags.

When the public has made itself familiar with the code, every person can ascertain the forecast by looking at any passing train.

The Whistle Signals.

The professor has also invented a plan to have locomotives and factories whistle the forecasts for the information of farmers who live too far away to see the flags. Notification will be given in every town and village where there is a steam whistle that at a certain hour every day the whistle will sound the signal to indicate the probable weather for the ensuing 24 hours.

Factories will receive the forecast by telegraph and locomotive engineers will receive it at their starting point.

The warning signal to attract attention will be what is called the long blast, lasting 20 seconds, blasts of from four to six seconds' duration will refer to the weather; short blasts of three seconds each will refer to the temperature, those for the weather to be sounded first, like this:

Blasts.	Indications.
One long	Fair weather
Two long	Rain or snow
Three long	Local rains
One short	Lower temperature
Two short	Higher temperature
Three short	Cold wave

Combination Blasts.

One long, alone—fair weather, stationary temperature.

Two long, alone—rain or snow; stationary temperature.

One long and one short—fair weather; lower temperature.

Two long and two short—rain or snow; higher temperature.

One long and three short—fair weather; cold wave.

Three long and two short—local rains; higher temperature.

Each combination will be repeated a few times, with an interval of ten seconds between. This will avoid the possibility of any error in ascertaining the forecast.

Some difficulty may arise with regard to the locomotive whistles. Engineers have to give railroad signals and the public mind may become confused by the two, but the professor thinks this difficulty can be overcome.

He expects to have the system in full operation before 1892.

THE W. R. C. BANQUET.

Annual Inspection, Social Chat, Addresses, and a Good Time Generally.

The annual banquet of the Woman's Relief corps took place last evening, and was a thoroughly delightful affair, as it always is. The ladies of the corps have not only gained the reputation of being able to conduct public meetings in the best of order and according to rules, but also of spreading the social board with the most finished skill and presiding thereat with grace and ease. The committees in charge last evening grandly sustained the reputation of the order.

The corps was called to order in G. A. R. hall at 6:30 for inspection by the state officer, Mrs. Cressinger, of Akron, who complimented them highly on their work and the manner of its performance. Adjournment to Memorial hall was next in order, where the banquet was fully enjoyed. The tables were handsomely decorated with flowers and laden with good things in most tempting array and the choicest sauce of the occasion was genuine sociability.

Adjourned to the annex hall, Mrs. Cressinger made a pleasing address. The president, Mrs. Howe, Mrs. Goodsmith, Mrs. Nicholas and others spoke entertainingly, and Mrs. Irving gave two recitations which were enjoyed and applauded. Mrs. Seney, senior vice-president, was on the program for a talk, but was unable to be present. A dispatch of greeting and God speed you in the good work was read from Mrs. Kate B. Sherwood of Canton, who never forgets her old corps, and the meeting adjourned a little after 9 o'clock.

CHEATING IN HORSE BLANKETS
Nearly every pattern of 5/A Horse Blanket is imitated in color and style. In most cases the imitation looks just as good as the genuine, but it hasn't the warp threads, and so lacks strength, and while it sells for only a little less than the genuine it isn't worth one-half as much. The fact that 5/A Horse Blankets are copied is strong evidence that they are THE STANDARD, and every buyer should see that the 5/A trade mark is sewed on the inside of the Blanket.

THE GERM THEORY.

Within the past few years a new theory of disease has arisen with the Medical profession, known as the GERM THEORY, which has developed into a distinct branch of science, called Bacteriology. According to this Theory, all endemic, epidemic and contagious diseases are produced by minute infecting germs or microbes (micro-organisms) peculiar to each disease, which enter the system as mentioned in our treatise, page 12, under the heading "WHAT IS BLOOD POISON?"

It has heretofore been held that the unbroken skin presents an impenetrable barrier against the exit of these microscopic germs (micrococci, bacilli, etc.) when they have once found their way into the system, and as it has been demonstrated that a remedy which would destroy these germs would also kill the patient, it has been a great want of the profession to know just how to treat the disease brought on by these microbes. But recent investigations in this branch of science, by Prof. Von Bumer-Zurick, as reported to the Congress of Surgeons at Berlin, and confirmed by a report of Prof. Eiselberger, of Vienna, show that these germs can be expelled from the system through the pores of the skin. It was demonstrated clearly that these germs can pass, do pass, and can be forced to pass from the blood, and from the tissues through the healthy skin to the surface of the body and thus relieve the system of disease.

To prove this Theory, experiments were made with two men, with a horse, a dog, and a hog, six times in a week—and in every instance the germs or microbes were found in the perspiration, showing that they had been eliminated through the skin.

Now, as SWIFT'S SPECIFIC has for about sixty years been relieving humanity of disease in just that way, we think we can but add the result of these experiments to the thousands of testimonials which we already have. S.S.S. has been for more than half a century forcing out these germs, or pathogenic microbes, from the blood and tissues, thus bringing health and happiness to thousands, and it is a part of science at this late day to corroborate our Theory and show just how it is done.

We claim, then—and not only claim, but prove by these reliable witnesses—that SWIFT'S SPECIFIC forces out these germs of poison; and it does more than that, it forces out the poison itself after the body has been infected and polluted with it. For instance, in the disease of Scrofula, if there should be an ulcer or a sore, the poison will be forced out through that sore or ulcer, and the germs will be forced out through the pores of the skin; and it is the same way with any other infection—when there are no sores or ulcers the germs are forced out through the skin which sometimes causes redness and a rash, and even swelling, as mentioned in the general directions.

Our method of treatment will speedily and permanently cure the most obstinate case, and absolutely restore perfect manhood.
TO MIDDLE-AGED MEN.—There are many from the age of 30 to 60 who are troubled with frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight burning or smarting sensation, weakening the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examination of the urinary deposits, a ropy sediment will be found, or the color will be a thin or milkish hue. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is a second stage of seminal weakness. We will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.
DISEASES OF WOMEN.—We have a special department, thoroughly organized, and devoted exclusively to the treatment of diseases of women. Every case consulting our specialists, whether by letter or in person, is given the most careful and considerate attention. Important cases (and we get few which have not baffled the skill of all the home physicians) have the benefit of a full council of skilled specialists. In treatment of diseases peculiar to females, our success has been marked, over two-thirds of our patients being ladies, old, young, married, single, rich and poor. Our method is entirely free from objectionable features of the general practitioner, namely, "Local treatment." We seldom find it necessary. We prepare remedies, constitutional and local, as the case demands, and instruct ladies how to treat themselves.
MARRIAGE.—Married persons, or young men contemplating marriage, aware of physical weakness, loss of procreative powers, impotency, or any other disqualification, speedily restored.
PRIVATE DISEASES.—Blood Poison, Venereal Taint, Gleet, Stricture, Seminal Emissions, Loss of Sexual Power, Weakness of Sexual Organs, Want of Desire in Male or Female, whether from imprudent habits of youth or sexual habits of mature years, or any cause that debilitates the sexual functions, speedily and permanently cured. Consultation free and strictly confidential. Absolute cures guaranteed. Medicines sent free from observation to all parts of the United States.
EPILEPSY, OR FITS—Positively cured by a new and never-failing method. Testimonials furnished.
FREE EXAMINATION OF THE URINE.—Each person applying for medical treatment should send or bring from 2 to 4 ounces of urine (that passed first in the morning preferred), which will receive a careful chemical and microscopical examination, and if requested a written analysis will be given.
Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders, who keep trifling with them month after month, giving poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately. Delays are dangerous.
WONDERFUL CURES Perfected in old cases which have been neglected or unskillfully treated. No experiments or failures. Parties treated by mail or express, but where possible, personal consultation is preferred. Curable cases guaranteed. No risks incurred.
☞ Cases and correspondence confidential. Treatment sent C. O. D. to any part of U. S. List of 130 questions free. Address, with postage, DR. FRANCE. Nos. 38 and 40 W. Gay St., Columbus, O.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.
EPPS'S COCOA
BREAKFAST.
"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Probably no physician of our day has gained such a reputation for curing cases of lingering or long standing diseases through treatment by mail as the great specialist in nervous and Chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 W. 14th street, New York, discoverer of the well known remedy, Dr. Greene's Nervura. He uses in his practice only harmless vegetable remedies, and has given special attention to treatment of patients at a distance through letter correspondence. Consultation in this manner or personally, is entirely free of charge. Any sufferer from whatever kind of disease has the privilege of writing to him a description of his or her case, and he will return a carefully considered answer fully explaining your disease and giving you a perfect understanding of all its symptoms, free of charge.

His success is something wonderful in restoring the sick to health, and his practice is without doubt the largest in this country. Send for his symptom blank and write him, sufferer, for his advice in your case. This will cost you nothing, and may lead to your cure.
